INTRO

From the Creation until nowadays life on Earth has gone through different transformations. At the beginning the mind has been only ether and after that the substance transforms to matter. After millions of years, it recreates into physical systems, energy bodies, spiritual and emotional entity. Every phase has formed one human race, nowadays people are product of the fifth race – difficult crystallization of the mind and matter. More difficult we ever imagine. We don't think of but we are living in very confused energy informational world, who is built from the fibres of earth vibrations, divine karma, universal mind and still not explored higher dimensional spirit and mind. In every second of our current moment it is mixed past and future with vectors of parallel life that we live in other dimensions. And that is not enough, and more – our ways crossed with earth creatures and aliens, with energies – invisible teachers, angels, archangels, agregors, magic, spirits, cosmic subordinations.

Our mind is receiving every impact of the multi Universe sub-consciously, including sources that is in our past life. But which one of these to follow and which to ignore? One of the ways to understand is to find the color of the light that is around our bodies – our Aura. If a man still does not have the senses for aura, it does not mean it doesn't exist and doesn't run aural evolutionary process in every one of us. The planet also transforms. It become the moment that the physical borders are not enough to embrace whole bunch of azure light that is around our bodies and brings many talents, ideas, settings and ways to travel in space. Many are talking about seven chakras, but human has twelve energy centers and one more that is its personal cosmic home – Nebula. What are you think about – could we live in a deception? No, you do not need to think, but to feel. No, feeling is earth concept and where we are going we don't need it. Just open your mind and then switch it off. By reaching the thirteen chakra level, the awake mind never sleeps again, and the experience stays in every other reincarnations of the spirit. Imagine to study and learn thousands of years without forgetting because of the death. This is the eternal life that is written in holy books. See, now are born the so called Indigo children which aura and energy I research in my cabinets all over. They are remembering reincarnations not only on Earth but also on other planets. Is this possible? We live in very dynamical times, because after 2012 we have rare chance to survive a new mind and matter transformation. This transformation will be physically aware, unlike past ones. It will happens in this life and will find place in historical books. And what will be written there? “We finally find out the hidden truth about humans. The human find itself that does not have only physical but also spiritual part – aura, chakras, soul and cosmic spirit. By the muscles we can control only our bodies, but by our energy nature we can reach and use the endless resource of the Universe and parallel worlds. On Earth there are portals that you also can travel through, there that I reached – the edge of the black cosmos.”

In books it will be also written that around us there are evil creatures also, that are interested to keep the human to be blind about its real nature. Its unlocks with harmony and love, and locks by the fear and zombiing. The book that you hold in your hands, dear reader, will shake your good idealized material world, who I am destined to keep by cosmic circumstances. With the risk to bring you cultural shock, soul and mental earthquake, I will tell you how real earthquakes are hold with mind power and spirit, what invisible processes are going on in cities we live in, what earth creatures and aliens powers are threatening human kind and its driven force the Aries and Bulg Aria. In “The Aura of Free Aries” I will uncover part of the revelations that my spiritual teachers and universal forces send me. We a strangers in our own bodies that hide enormous aural and universal resources. I research this years ago. May be you know me from the TV, known as Reiki master Deyan Kolev, that show up from time to time, speaks about human aura and cosmic love. I will not keep it in secret, the way of the cognition and inspiration was thorny and here I will reveal what I live through. Otherwise who am I to teach if I not tell you how I reached to the halo of truth.

Climbing through ladder of aural evolution, I found out that energy informational environment around us is polluted. This phenomenon is very wide. Our planet is covered by big holographic net for control and repress to other creatures, known as reptiles. Under Satan’s dome has wide spread the field of negative though – magical rituals and practices that occultists and magicians of different regions and ranges creates to damage people for couple of coins. Except pagan magic, there also modern one. It’s called energy fight.

Yes, many will tell that its negative impact can not be proved. But they are wrong. Now there is Aura Camera that physically I show the processes that are killing us, or that are bringing us to the divine light. Nowadays more that ever we have to seek it, because it seems that all invisible to the eye “demons” has allied against human. There are forthcoming trials for Bulgaria and the whole world and only with “indigo children” ‘s help we could manage. I am myself one of them, came through the dimensions with the first wave in 1974. In this book I will try to tell you how I made a way through the jungle with the help of the shining sword of Sirius, to the temple of the heart. I pray for you to have the courage and holy help to follow me to the most expensive treasure – the spiritual awakening.

I have lost many valuable things through my way to find out the divine fruits with which to feed Bulgaria and the whole humanity. For me, the enlightenment in aura came after big lifetime crush, when by not finding a support in current time, I have been told to search salvation in the power of my own divine universal spirit. Others came to this step by step through whole lifetime. Others after they step out by the border between worlds, with the process of physical death they understand how they do not know each other and the world we live in. One is sure – our time on Earth is limited, but is enough to reveal our mission and the direction of development we want to follow. One of the ways to know the Aura that our creator send us as gift. Believe or not He or She - the divine world exists and navigates our lives. This world has strict hierarchy, its lows, but also dangerous.

Very soon Earth life and divine one will merge as it is said in many holy writings, we will see whether whole process will happen in 2012 or we will have to wait until 2024. Religions, Maya predictions are revealing to us just some of the aspects of what is going to happen to the whole world soon. You and me have the rare chance to be born in interesting times, through which we could live impulse of awakening to the eternal life. That is why we should be ready in every each moment with pure love in our hearts to gather all colors in our aura to be prepared to live through the sixth planetary transformation. The border between dimensions is getting thinner and thinner, we don't have time to loose, so let's start ...

Built by Light

We should accept the fact that we are not equal, because we are built of different energies. God gave us possibility to collect colors in the radiance around us – our aura. Every color gives us a key to a new world- initiation for higher energies, vibrations, sensitivity. When we get to know whole rainbow, we pass through personal and universal transformation, and we climb to another level of existence. The big question is – which is this creative energy upon it we could build our evolutionary pyramid? The answer is Love above all. We come to the world with pure love, with it we have to water the dry solid of hatred, spite and envy. The first resistance we meet is the family. “You can not love- there they tell you- you can be hurt, it is not good to show your feelings to others”. Soon you find they were right. This issue meet the most sensitive ones, that for now I would call indigo formally. Often indigo is called crazy and not normal because of its more sensible nature. As a result from the white and violet specter shine their physical projections of the spirit – the soul, they loose part of their divine being and go in lower levels becoming with orange or yellow auras.

A right for free choice or rough matrixing, everyone can judge by its own. Whether or not mission of the indigo person goes to other direction, from the one given with the birth – to change the Earth. The divine world and the lifework made here are important to stay vainly. They need to charge with positive vibrations and love the astral ether, defying a new level of moral hygiene and high purity of a spiritual consciousness. Not by accident in Bulgaria came saint Joan Rilski, Boyan Maga, Petar Dunov the teacher. Orpheus has come to these lands. We have very specific energy, it is not necessary to go to courses for perfection, it will be enough to visit our holy lands, and finally to climb on Rila mountain to activate the good in ourselves, by letting love springing up by our hearts and go higher. According to universal mind, if the process develop as it planned, who is revealed to us that were initiated – wars, global and local conflicts, economic speculations and ecological crimes will stop forever. But what is happening and why I'm writing this book?

Instead of spiritual evolution and planetarian peace, lightworkers are roughly landed by the rotted stinky civilizational models. There's a tendency that no one speaks about in Bulgaria, and big governments over the world are aware of it and its devastating impact. And still silence... This phenomenon I called formally over polarization. This is process of turning positive indigo creatures in negative ones. What does this mean? Young people has terra bites of divine inner love, but there's no one to share with. Parents are angry, struggling and fighting for physical survival, they create unemotional curtain between them and new generation. In society is the same, survive only the ones which cruelty and ruthless smashes the delicate nature of the sixth race. Its representatives close in deeply, calcify, and in period of 3-4 years they became demonic creatures. And as in unbrooded egg the living plasma is getting darker, this way the ones carrying the power of the spirit, are choking in this disharmonic social hold, and the seed of creation is growing in them to destroy afterwords. This tendency is very dangerous because Saviors of this world can become its most terrible judge. On a global view world will continue its parodic way to the abyss. On a pure living scale, injured indigo person is damaging brains of its teachers in school. It feels the spirit, it has visions, but in one moment its connection with cosmic teachers is lost and on its place it comes aggression of the darkness and the beings of the lower vibrations – Ariman. Their family and friends also suffers of the rage on the dark side.

Different souls when we are born, we are still staying with old memories from the past. They give us wisdom that is carrying us from childhood times. Some of us keep it in middle of times through years, not letting the energy of the biochip of oblivion enter into us. After that in kinder garden and in school are happening devastating things. Whether we are with crystal, white or lavender auras the result is always the same – loneliness, alienation, lower vibrations and amnesia. There's no one to share with feelings we're bringing with us, divine love and the truth. There we went into one barcoded, matrixed and numbered society where the EGN (identical with social number) and the biometric data on the id card is fair enough to belong into one sick human kind. Social, and somewhere on Earth also kasta barriers, are separating us like animals since we're born. "You have to be victim to be eaten, and you can bring golden eggs". Yes, but if the individual does not like this kind of existence and it doesn't like this farm? And what if the universal powers of the spiritual evolution keep other lifetime tasks for it, outside this farm, outside the city, outside this country, even outside this dimension?

At the beginning of the month of June, in my office there came a child from Vraca. Indigo gifts of this sixthgrade boy absolutely gives him life outside the farm. My office is easily found, in the mall of Student's town in Sofia, but sometimes people are confused and tried to use wrong entrance and that's why I went outside to meet him. The boy have saw me on television shows I were guest, searched in google and found my office. He came alone from the province to find answers about himself and his mission on Earth. I must say that boys like this are very rare. The aggression and the severe demon of material wealth usually smashes more sensitive beings. They stay prisoners of the infidelity and stupidity because there's no one to show them the emergency exit. Well, this kid somehow has seen this in my face. We went to elevator and perhaps we should have used the stairs. When we came in the steel cell has shaken as like "Filip Kutev" ensemble is dancing all over it. With big almost rocket fire we moved up. After a second on the third floor, the system crushed again and lights started to blink as in a disco hall. The elevator stays on one place, while the floor buttons was blinking. That happened other time again, one the energy bodies of the kid decided to came upper to see the area just for case. I could cut his astral walk easily with couple mental slaps over neck without touching him, but I decided not to complicate the situation. First, the kid made this subconsciously. Second, the effect of mixing our auras in such narrow area could have fatal consequences on his physical projection. Even death.

"I see spirits, the auras of people and I can not share I am different", says the boy. "I analyzed his aura with my Aura camera. It shows violet aura – rare color that is showing belonging to the new sixth human race. I myself as a kid feel the shining power of my spirit. And I can confess that life of one child with family from the fifth race, where they are far far away from what the new child is as wisdom and spirit, is not easy at all.

When I was in the kinder garden I felt for the first time what kind of power have we human beings. It happened several times to forget that I'm incarnated spirit in a physical body. This time still I didn't have visions or instructions from higher, that came in later period of my life. Then I came in such state where I realized that I'm still little with little body but I felt also the strength of some thing that is beyond our sensitivity. In those moments I became meters and meters tall, and I merged with whole spirit of Earth and Cosmos. Later I realized this is our high-level spirit who subordinate whole process of getting consciousness in this dimension.

Girl steals cars

At the beginning of spring at 2010, a girl came to me, who has broken all the lights in building's entrance of my office only with her presence. When she came in the office, she restarted four times two of my computers, and at that time there was no electricity break down as I was informed. The problem was that with her extraterrestrial powers, she wanted to kill her father. The father has become ill and get high blood pressure every night, because his girl, 12-13 years old, was uncontrolled. Beside usual thing that often happens around her, she has broken written and unwritten laws – she run from school, fought in discos, cursed old people in social buses and finally got my drugs. In some time the girl with few friends have organized car stealing band. With her psychic energy, the girl has blown up the whole alarm system of the cars. Her mother brought it to me, wondering whether she has a girl or a devil in physical body. The girl started same magical focuses in my office. I asked the mother to wait outside and I pressed the girl with more powerful gravitation energy without touching her. “Well done, please stop, I promise I will give love, but tell them to ask it”, the girl cried. She has realized the transformation that has gone with her but she could not have the power to escape from the negative flow. In this flow you can swim easily by staying with the floating and one ancient energy is going through the whole being and kicked it in the nothingness the chaos. Her family could not understand it, as the moral paradigm differs from the actual one. Money, the material in the social conscious are even more important of what they were for our mothers and fathers. This escalation of the Mammon is in big dissonance with the indigo child, who came here to put up with it. Not to feel noise, but the sound of the forest. For indigo child money are just instrument to achieve goals that usually are from high-level importance – saving the nature and the human being with the only weapon we have – love and fairness. I am telling you all that, because I myself has gone through this whole way. From here there comes my oppessions that many human beings are sensing the spirit and the energy, but because of formatting their beginning program, they turn into dark side.

The girl sit to scan her aura with my Aura camera. The computer with which is connected whole system has blocked four times. On the fifth time her aura has shown. It should be in the higher aspect of the spirituality- white, lavender or violet- but because of the reasons i numbered, the girl has lost many of the gifts of the Creator, and has landed to yellow color of the intellectual materialism. She had also very big and developed third chakra (more in II chapter), which the girl use to attack the rest of the world with invisible electromagnetic powers. Depending by the intensity these powers restarting or totally braking the electric fields- lights crushed, computers blocked. And what to tell about the people that are in the scope of such psycho weapon – they are caused problems with peripheral nervous system, unusual blood pressure ups and downs, attack, dizziness, nausea and stifling. Couple of time the girl that I will tell you only the first name – Mila has tried to attack me with her poison arrows but still without success.

“She tried to kill her uncle, she is more powerful than were are, what we can do?” “Is she enchanted Mr. Kolev, or is she psychically ill, and why does she madden us?”, asked her mother. Computer graphic has shown clearly that the girl is neither enchanted, nor is she obsessed. Mila’s aura form had nice egg form. If there’s an evil impact the energy field of the human is showed as bitten or there are missing parts of the aura. When we stay alone, Mila start to excuse herself that no one understands her, her father doesn’t love her and he is the one with the guilt of her behavior. “Look, your way is not to destroy. There're also others like you, strong energy warriors. Your mission is to keep Bulgaria save. Soon you will ally in spiritual center that I will create", I told to indigo child. She has calmed when she saw that there also others who possess the force. I made some energy corrections and send her home. Her mother called my back after a week, that the situation in family is harmonized now. Also the family member that has been injured was better now. But as Mila told me, she attacks it to self-defense because the brother of her mother was an energy vampire.

Always when I talk about Mila case, it is auto regressional for me, as it turns me back to my unconscious indigo childhood. I am 12-monhs old and my grandfather is in front of me – energy vampire – sitting in his wheelchair, and staring at me with his little eyes without feelings and as he is taking my energy. The feeling is burning as my energy protection is still fragile. I'm crying and shaking, and he is staring at me deeper and deeper, as there is not enough the power he is taking from me, but he wants to see the label on my soul "made in Sirius". Crying by this pain in my conscious flies a sphere. I throw it to him, as I'm throwing some of my baby toys my parents gave me, and they have decided I am falling asleep with this toys. Few months later, my grandfather has died. Energy sphere directed to beings that are not connected to the source of divine light is always fatal. I know this now more than 30 years later. But then..!? I have saved myself with a resource of my past life or perhaps mind form has been given to me by one of my azure guardian.

My childhood has been full with wonders. When I entered in the kinder garden I felt I want to give the high vibration of love, which I carry as I was born. My aura shown in white and I was running after my friends and kissing them one after another. I remember that because of my high sensitivity, self-sharing and affection, sometimes I isolated myself and cried with days. In basic school

I have developed great intuition. There were some moments to remember, as to predict my lady teacher's thoughts. She has an exercise, that she used to write on the blackboard a sentence with mixed words. We had to make grammatical and stylistic right sentence, trying to guess the one she thought of. She was still writing on the board, when I stand and said the first sentence that was on my mind. It was the right combination of verbs, adverbs and nouns, teacher had in her mind. Strange things happened to me, continue in upper grades. It was pure joy to guess for example how many coins have in pocket my friends. To one of my friend I said that he will marry for a girl from Petrich. He didn't believe it but years after that it happened. He came to Greece for business and went near by the town of chestnuts to drink one "south coffee". He meet a girl, they change profiles in some site and wedding came. They married on Spasovday. Heavy macedonian wedding continue three days and nights as it is habit.

In school couple of times I went out of my body and felt the rhythm of the Universe. For the first time this happened when I was three years old. I fell and I crushed my head on the edge of the sofa. I went out from my body and I saw – blood is everywhere and my parents were holding my head on the sink. Years later my mother told me that instead of crying I had smiled weird.

Astral flight in mature age is scary and the same time more exciting. Hyper gifted indigo children from all over Bulgaria have come and told me how it was with them. I know this phenomenon in details and it impacts on young conscious as I personally learned it. During one school break I felt I'm not in clothes I wear and I'm not in body which muscles I count on. I become lighter and enter in another "class room" It's hard to tell what kind of space is that. In it I forgot for my physical projection and I felt something more powerful and stronger than me. I couldn't see it but I felt it with every atom, the feeling for force, strength and calmness which this feeling brought me. I didn't hesitate for a moment at all and I leached in it like a loudly flow in river Iskar. This thing has filled me up and become part of me, but in fact I was part of it. I felt gigantic, great and cosmic wise. I saw my classmates from the position of a telecommunication satellite, in the earth's orbit. "Do you see we are not just that body? There's something greater than us... Am I here now?"; and they answered me that it getting already crazy with all the cosmic things. A few days passed before next strange event. I needed a time to think of and shake from the shock I experienced. I saw that my point of view has changed really.

After gymnasium I went in the army. A place like this woven by barbed wire and iron rules, was not for a person like me that has felt the taste of freedom of the spirit. They told me when to wake up, where to go, what to eat, when to go to bed. All these rules madden me. I couldn't stand all these stuff of fake order of fear and obedience and I decided to do something. Older soldiers told me to eat glass so I will get ulcer. I heard them and soon I got nice bloody stomach. I reached my goal so I was dismissed because of illness on 19 years old. I had to sign a declaration that I had such illness, otherwise I could sue the state that I got ill during my service. They send me on sanatorium in Hisaria for two weeks. I went there as my health status was getting worse. At dusk I went to one church there. I prayed to God to forgive my the stupid thing I mad. I didn't know how much time I stayed in this condition but at some time Christ gave his right hand, put it on my stomach and the pain has gone. It might be autosuggestion, auto hypnosis, but the hospital results couple of days after were explicit. There is no injury at all, no ulcer. I didn't have the time to analyzed what happened, I hurry to pass my documents for the last classification in Shumen university. Later I transit to Svishtov university with specialty Marketing and advertising. Although in my youth period the phenomenal insights had become part of my life, I still didn't take all this seriously. Hyper sensitive gifts are deep scar that a being has a mission on this plane, but what was mine?

Searching for the Mission

Most human beings that are given secrets of spiritual life, had experienced a deep suffer during life. That brought catharsis to their souls. I have met a lot of extrasensitivities – prophets, witches, mags and healers. All of them, they keep somewhere one big, crushing, martyrdom pain. Suffer come to God's chosen ones in two ways. First one is as a karmic faithful test, which has given to particular person to face with and as result of its pain it is given a gift – a key to Universe codes. There's an other way also. Even it is preferred by most of the people with which destiny has met. They have been chosen by the providence but they have opposed it. Higher mind has whispered to them, pushed them like the stick is pushing golf ball, but finally decided to act cardinally and with strong stroke has moved them to the hole – life hole, emotional or health suffer one. It symbolized our movement from upper to lower world, from external to internal peace. Destiny always hits where pain is devastating. To push us to right way it always took from us the precious – a child from a mother, a property from a father, the love one... There we fall into knockdown from where there's no exit. To escape from that, a man have to think a lot, to read the omens that a given. This is the only way to follow steadily its way given by Fortuna. Otherwise there will be pain. Transformation that happened in misfortune resonate with enormous strength to soul world and the body. Science will research in future how the pain impact to our energy bodies, which embrace us. Also where it is the bond between physical and non-physical world in the complicate DNA code, and how suffer changes it to category “phenomenon”. Since bible times it is clear, the pain-physical or psychical, disclaiming the ego on every level, material misery – all this gives higher senses are consciousness. In this way not one or two saints have encountered its way to God and Universe.

In university the fantastic stories in my life had become some sense and explanation. They become more than a coincidence and child play of what I thought at first time. I don't know how I have looked like in human's eyes but I have wondered them with my hyperactiveness and not logical mind. I was very active as teenager – women, parties, booze until dawn. I won't hide this, now I may am spiritual leader, but I'm not ashamed to confess, that I had small hooligan stories leaded by moral senses. I just had become to change my paths, and Fortuna has decided to take me back to my spiritual mission. And by presumption it starts always with some kind of suffer and one question – why are we here on Earth? This question, and whether we are asking it or not, in fact make the difference between the human and the animal, between successful life and existence without a cause.

The ancient have told – in vino veritas, or in wine is the truth. Coincidentally or not, but path for my spiritual evolution has crossed over the village property, from where my family plant and make the elixir of Gods. Envy neighbors has destroyed grape plants in village Gostinya. My grandma almost died when saw what happened – planted grape destroyed and become a potato ground. Grandma wondered what to do, but without evidences she couldn't complain in police. Where to go...finally she decided to go to local shaman Iliycho Tihov. Only Iliycho could answered to the question who has made this awful sin to God of wine, mother nature and private property at same time? The gift of the old man was big. Apart from healing different kind of health injuries, he was also a prophet with eagle eye that could look in the nonvisible world. With it he often lighted paths of his village's neighbors – where to find job, what ritual to do to keep their health etc.

According to grandmother's story, the man has named rude people made that. They came up to be neighbors, as we thought. By the way grandpa Ilich has saw me also, that I am with paranormal possibilities. "You have extreme grandson in home, and came to me. He has chosen to keep save Bulgaria. You must listen to him! It will become a day – whole of Bulgaria will know him." told the prophet to my grandma. "Oh and also not to worry about his exam in university on informatics, because he'll take it with 4 ground." he told.

The day of my first exam in university has come. Honestly, I haven't read a lot, but the few I know I know it by heart. I repeated it, as well as the village prophesy that my grandma has calmed my down with.

Healing with light

After breaking magics and contacting i was enlightened with other forgotten gift - the healing. It happend veru fast and soon i started to heal. I used to see everybody as form of an energy. One blue wave was runnning as on monitor and where there was dark black spots from my hands starts a healing ray and went directly into the dark spots. In most of the ways this was the injured pplace in patients body. Every bad deseases that is in body i captured right on time. And after i once catch it the desease ended. The light has come into my hands as an automibile lights. With its help i cut all variations of deseases in human body. After that with a ray that comes from my third eye i transformed the desease in dust. At the end I take the substance through the skin and left the other to be cleaned through the limf and through away the garbage in the release system. If i have to discribe sorts of healing vibratrions that i used those were three cutting, crushing and sucking. Rarely i needed to make more than 3 seans as the sky healer i have been installed with was working perfectly. It doesnt complaint for higher payment, never striked and works always on time.

I want to mentioned that my gift meeted my with one person that is not famous but his gift deserve attention - Minko the Yogi. Among all the miracles i recive also a translator for very ancient and forgotten languages. With its help I read the ancient manuscript that bai Minko had. He updated himself with me also for the meridians in the human body. I have seen them perfectly as tiny firefighters that enlightened the body. The phylosophy of Minko the Yogi was that the troubles for the bulgarians were coming from there that the bad wanted not only yours possesions, nor the money but also your divine gift from the upper. As destiny irony he died with the „help“ of a near him woman. He went to the light as a saint with crossed hands.

My opinion is the the bulgarians are not for yoga skill as we are tall nation with strong charakter. Our bone system and soul structer is not made for practise the yoga. If we could make the assans we had to break down as a nation and were on on the world map these days.

In my hometown Lovech i created transcedetal group. Her major core were from 5 people. Once in a week we made contact-ing seances. Four people looked after the universal channel and i went in the middle into trans. The other were asking different questions. There with me they connected with higher dimension-al beings that i talked with. Most of them were young and asked about when they will find a man and if there love relationship now they are in is perspective. Sometimes the invisible were answering very strictly other time were insightful. For the planetarian ques-tions that were on a daily order as wars, ecology, evolution, they answered very symvolic.

During one of the first seances were asked abut who is an-swering through myself. To the questions of the group we were given with this information:

- Who are you?
- Deyan and star spirit.
- What connects you?
- A subordination.
- In what direction?
- From up to down, rarely the opposite.
- He and you are one all or separate beaings?
- One all... small conscioussness Deyan and big ' one a high-er star spirit.
- What exactly is the ratio?

- 90 percent spirit and 10 percent earth consciousness.
- If the little part is on Earth where is situated the other part?
- Sirius.

What conclusion we made? Sometimes we think that higher dimensional spirits for example angel are helping us, but the truth is that we help each other because everyone is a cosmic spirit that guide and subordinate us.

During the seans we were interested by the nature of the soul. It was explained to us that the soul is emotional interface, like a bond between the body and the spirit. With its help we take and receive a love, but only with the spirit you can send love to God, stars and the Universe.

At dusk i went to one elevation place near Troyan that i often go, and i opened my Anahata chakra entirely. The feeling can not be described - angelic pure and absorbent. From this moment in my days i was full with love. I gave it to friends and relations and that never ends. This was also a problem as on earth level i could not do my things, and i started to do things that were not in earth norm of behavior. As the universal love has obsessed me entirely, it went through all levels of the human emotionality. It went through compassion, forgiveness and at the end it materialized into charity, but anonymous. Without anyone knows i gave several thousands leva to friends, familiars and unfamiliar. Nothing helps. The love that i had and has no one to give to in any form has started to strangle me. My sky teachers showed me an exercise with it to give from these vibrations to -Earth, stars, Universe and the endless. Otherwise i will explode.

‘Imagine the North pole. You are there in a pyramid capsule. Around it it goes powerful wave. It goes upper and upper turn into clockwise and goes to the South pole.’

I made it. I imagine that i give love to all the humanity. At first time i had send it to God he has turned it back in million times stronger. Now it showed how to give it to the world. I made threetimes the exercise and calmed down.

My healing mission continued around three years. It was a very light period. I was with long curly hair in white robe. My clothes were exactly as the higher energy vibration that I was in. But here is one theme that is tabu is extrasensory. Many of the well known extrasenses in Bulgaria has reached the exposure of the higher abilities. It is very dangerous as it said to the ego that he is so powerful almost like God. But the gift is transient and most of the reasons are connected with unmoral behaviour. It is a sin that do not forgive to the chosen ones. The reel of the phenomenon is taken and the development is stopped and these people has many troubles after that. These are in fact the fallen angels among people. I wont mention names but because of pride, lust and avarice, 99 percent of our greatest extrasensors - bioenergy-healers, mediums and clairvoians from near and far past has lost their gifts. These ones that are on the monitor still somehow are laying on old abilities and purely lying. There are third category also - they were injured and are not alive any more. All these phenomenon had missions but fall into the trap of the earth miracles, not realizing that it is very low level, nearly the first step of the star evolutionary stairs that they had the rare chance to follow. And this is only the beginning of the way to the knowledge, and not its end. Most of our phenomenon entirely consciousness stopped here. They were trapped in the shine of glory, hearing only the sound of money, they stayed blind and earless for the sound of the invisible world not to stop here, but to continue their development. They were informed that here is very windy to stay but who has listened... I wont hide I also feelled the unbelievable feeling to be half God. I received appreciation - financial and moral from the society, compared only to the gifts that the tribe gave to its God. I continued the life of my chemistry teacher. She suffered from cancer and has left couple of weeks life. I re ordered her entire energy and she lives several years longer before she goes on the light where she belongs to.

Often i healed chronicdeseased that i called martyrs. These people because of wrong diagnoses are going from one to another hospitals with years. These suffering people are only praying to my cosmic spirit and almost during my sleep he gave him healing. The magics i saw like eagle its prey. From a distance i deactivate the magic rituals and released the suffer ones. The feeling after every seans is not comparable - im the only one, compared with the God. The priest of Bulgaria. For rmy success very fast i have my brain on place and realize that the vanity was not the purpose but consequence of my earth mission.

We - the phenomenon are just people that has been given access to the fruits of the cosmic evolution. And it is a devolution to eat only from one fruit that will cause to saturation poison the blood.

My suspects very soon were justified. Several extrasensors died in front of my eyes. Literally months after their activation of their gifts. The cause was not found. Other today still are suffering slowly of the causes of their gifts.

From the distance of time i realized that the biggest miracle i made is to know myself on the age of 21. Then i questioned myself - what is the difference between the normal person and the extra-sensor healer? And the answer was that the second one has just believed in its endless power and broken the egg that creates the aura around us and let the macrocosmos to seal with its microcosmos through its 7 chakra. Because we are small model of the universe and everyone of us consist the model of the Creator in small variant in its aura. Now we will see more detailed the aurical nature in human beings.

Do we have Auras?

The aura was in the fantasy category not far away from the distance of time, but it is a real fact as the air we breathe and don't see but still it keeps us alive.

The Aura is the energetic field that is around our bodies. It is an indivisible part of the alive and mortal nature. All animals, plants, strong and inanimate structures like minerals, stones and metal have auric fields. The human aura that can be measured with apparatus is three dimensional. It has egg form and can be spread from 2 cm to 3.5 metres around out of the body. As an order the energetic field of a human is 2 times taller and 4 times wider than its physical body. The aura of the high evolutionary beings and the one to the presenters of the high Spiritual hierarchy can not be tracked. It is far too big spread kilometers out of the physical bodies.

The ancient has known about its existence, but the nowadays human found this part of its nature nearly at the beginning of 19. century. In 1882 year Yakov Otonovich Narkevich - Yodko - a scientist above his time - has made a revolutionary encounter. He heard by accident the story of a village person that explained that he sees colours around people's bodies with his eyes. The person obviously has gifted with auric sight, but Yodko created simple electronic device that extract a picture on a photo. On these photos can be seen the a leaf that falls down from a tree slowly but surely lost its aura. They also see that after a pray the hands of the prayer has been wrapped with nice mild light, than the people that fight each other or has been negative doesn't have such light. The hands of a man in love were wrapped in bright lights when he touches his beloved one. When a man suddenly been sick, its radiation changes, it appears dark spots and the energetic field has ruptured. These pictures were published in several scientific magazines - russian and other and a few questions has popped up.

Yodko has called its method electrography. After many photos, he noticed that the electrography photos were different in on and same places on healthy and deased people. In this way he predicted the possibility of using the method for diagnosis. The Russian scientist explained the phenomenon this way: The human organism has always produced electric impulses in the neurons like a electronic battery, that is exchanging energy with the space around us.

In 1891-1900 the demonstration attempts of the american scientist with serbian roots Nikola Tesla showed that the alive organism can use the method of gas visualization. Tesla has received photos of visualizations with simple photo technics. He has captured photos with the help of high voltage electricity. Electrographic photos has made also Bitner, Pogorelski, Navratil, Nifer, Chapek. All those scientists has declined that has shown unknown radiation. Someone has named biological magnetizm, and were not far away from the truth. Around every biological system it exists very lowlevel magnetic field. Scientist has been near by the phenomenon bio field for which there are proofs for centuries reached us by the Aurveda and the chinese medicine. At the beginning of 20. centery because of the revolutionary develop of the society people forgotten about those encounters. The work has been established in the 30 years of the 20. century when the russian sciens the couple Kirlian again worked on the mystery of the aura. After 10 years preparations Kirlian couple created a machine that can capture the radiation of the magnetic field of the objects. For this purpose they use the transformer of Nikola Tesla work on impulse vibrations. Kirlian made thousands of photos to observe this phenomenon. The quality of the photos were far away more qualified. The skin has its own mechanism and have functions connected with inner organs of the body during the nerve system. In the process they found that photos give not only the physical but also the emotional situation of the body. In 60 years of 20. century was planned wide use of the Kirlian photography. In the field of medicine these photos were like miracle. When there's paralyzation of some parts of the body for example these photos shows which are the injured parts of the body system and from the nerve system which parts are dead and which still alive.

In the cell of the body the kinetic energy has transformed into electromagnetic. The atoms and the cells vibrates and creates electromagnetic waves. The sum of those vibrations creates the aura. The bioenergy gives information of the health in the cell. The most interesting is that the thought can change the aura. It is possible to transform the processes in the body by the thought. The whole aura is made when to the bioenergy we add two more components. The first is running through the nerve system and the meridians. The second component of the aura contains the work of the brain which also creates electromagnetic vibrations. It comes from the world of our thoughts and feelings, a spiritual evolution. This is the reason that the body gives information which is for the physical and emotional condition at the moment.

Thought also brings energy. It changes our electromagnetic field and run through the air. These are the thought-forms that the esoteric talks about for centuries but no one can explain this existence and who it works. From there the information goes to the earth and beyond earth ways. There one thought reaches the other end of the universe for a second. All these different source of bioelectronic radiation has no barrier like the skin but goes through and beyond the aura of the human body. Every radiation brings information of its source where it comes from. The radio waves brings sound the television waves - picture. The creator talks to us with a simphony of colours in our auras. The oreol of the saints in many cultures shows that their aura is so strong that can be seen with an eye. The word saint means a man with very powerful aura.

First pictures shows one small part of the field of our auras. The electric field that is visible is called now bio field. Now it is created a new model of equipment that i imported first in Bulgaria - the Aura Camera. It is first model that makes photos of auras and makes all visible that Yodko has seen in the past. Aura camera captures also the chromatic vibrations that was oriented of the priest from America - Edgar Keisy. He also has the gift - aurical vision. This unique equipment shows the rare moment when the esoteric knowledge and the science has worked together. The ancient knowledge still compares with the traditional science but sometimes thanks for a godminded man by evidence or not their paths has crossed. Aura camera is one of those miracle crossroads.

The master of the elements

I have done everything by the plan that was given to me from the upside. Once it was told to me to go the suburbs of Lovech. There there was an old lady with a gift that i should help to. I was told i should convince her that she should continue her mission. I found the lady, her name was grandma Raina. When i meet her she told me she has dreamed on me - with long curly hair all in light. She even thought that an angel is coming for her to take her to other world. „No grandma Raina, from the upper world told me that you should continue helping people no matter what“. When i say these words the old lady started to cry. She blessed me several times and also the all saints that has brought me there. She told me the big pain. Some people called evengelists has frightened the lady. They told her she is a witch alos like baba Vanga. They told her she doesnot deserve to live and they scared her that they will fire up her and her house. Very soon i met these people. they started to talk to me the same things, and i told them kl ' ' to leave alone the old lady otherwise they will see the dark part of my holy personality. They really thought that my power comes from demonic powers, therefore they didnt try to scare the old lady again.

The old woman was important part of the puzel for my spiritual reconstruction. With her help i rethink the wholeness of my mission and the trust that i was given with by the upon.

'Apolo, Poseidone' was replied to me the old woman. And i replied 'Where did you see them?' Soon after that i visited the solar temple in Greece and also Poseidon's temple. There i remember that i have did a contract in the spiritual world with the Bright side to stop earthquakes and floods and to build spiritual centres for the new race - the indigo children.

Sometimes we i dream i went to a school in roman style. There me and three more kids were taught how to trace the sound of the quakes. Before there's earthquake there's very interesting sound like from a falling waterfall. This is the sound that actually crashed to Earth. The trouble for me goes from the fact that some of the teaching that i received comes to me during sleep. Terabytes of light comes into every fibre of my body. I travelled to different planets far away from our galaxy. On the morning i have only part memories but this also was for a reason.

In march 1995 i started to write hieroglifs. On my channel there i was told that as i am a new to this with weal guard, I was given with secret harmless code to write on with any risk. The starnge thing was that only i could de cipher it. For example i wrote ten symbols and a second after that in a thought-form i received the meaning. The system was needed for deffence as i was thought many earth nad beyond earth creatures and organizations we still keeping the humanity in strict control and prevent the awakeness to 'humanity by the higher spirit. They go during sleep and can take every information from the suspects in crushing the interdimentional embargo. There's an agreement for no communication between more developed and lower developed civilizations. Between them on the evolutional staircase there's such that are one idea more developed by the humanity , but are light years far away by the Creators that wanted to help to humanity. These dark forces from thousands of years has monopolized the connection between the human and the cosmos. In big present they poses the information that comes for the humanity and uses for themselves for control the people. I was suprised to understand that whole governments are conncted in the conspiracy, because this automatically means that most of the politicians are pupets and serve to outdoor civilization with low evolution and moral.

I to confess did not take on serious these warnings that someone has spiang at me. But still i do what i was thought by the high spirit. One night they filtered protected code in me and the pen was useless anymore. I started to understand the revelations that comes to me by the universal channel without written code. In the beginning i was instructed by Peter and Pavel. After that i was taught by the Sirius creatures, and then my training was taken by heruvims of the wisdom. Few months i taken information by the Christos consciuousness. This is part of the text:

‘You are the tree of life. The crown of the tree is the pozitive energy Ian. The roots are the negative energy In. It is not evil as the minus of the battery can not be good or bad. The minus saves person and keeps it on ground, and the plus gives it love and leave it to create and develop upon to its second home - the cosmos. ‘

With grandma Raina we worked together for a while in one village house. She predicted and the sick ones gives to me for healing. We have charged everyone of what can afford to give, no strict tarif. I saw the sicknesses like on an echograf with my invisible monitor. I dropped with my thought a blue ray and many blockages in the system were running out of the patience. Then I turned my astral monitor on white light And i the moment it vizualized all the organs that were blinking like small diods. In red light there it shows the sick organs anf systems that has run out of the harmonical rhytm of the body. Depended by the nuanses of red i understand that on phyzical level someone were still called ‘healthy’ but soon the desease could start. In black i have seen tumors and cysts. I cut a painful part from the body with ray of light to my cousin from Stefanovo. The myoma in woman was also coloured in black. I have said a special pray, my codes were activated and the lazur has run like a river from my hands. Two or three push was enough to disappear the illness and what it causes it.

I soon noticed a paradox. In most of my patients the illness only changes the name but not the body. Because of the stress, spiritual disbalance and not controlled emotions many patients come again after year. I remember for a patient with a pain in the neck that i have healed, and he came with same problem but in the knee. I tried to observe more closely the repeated patients. Discopathy for example has transformed into hronical astma, the tumor - in shizofrenical impacts. This time i realized that when i heal only the phyzical proection of the soul i did almost nothing. As i was autoinstaller. I repair one part but another has crushed. In that moment i realized that the phyzical body is one, but the soul is second and the spirit third. And all were connected. It is meaningless to heal only the body as the real suffer can be in the second and third- the soul and the spirit the other two parts of the divine. The exercise can have such meaning like to paint a house that has humidity in it. The pait will crush and fall soon after that. I observe very interesting phenomenon. The women around its 50 years has always did to themselves a myoma. When they came the climacterium in most of them started the sundrom of barren Eva. They started to cry about their lost youth and as last they want to feel again the power of a young woman subconsciously. The nostalgia to the impossible conception is very dangerous cocktail with negative substances. They lied the organizm to build something utopic and as a result of the bioenergetic disordance there creates a formation in the uterus - a child as last. 70 percent of the deseases has started in the soul on the mental and emotional level, there it start every healing process. The thoughts and the emotions is what the ancient called - kama manas- the mind of disires and the ego where it creates the atmosphere of illness and health. The chosen thoughts goes by the mental body to the emotional through the eter dublicate to the phyzical body and depend on what contains it started illness or health. The bulgarian has in its soul not only one troyan horse that obsessed it from inside. Family strogle, stress, fearnesses and envy impact on the whole health of the nation. The centre of the aura of Bulgaria has changed every minute depending on high or low vibrations has gone through souls of Bulgarians. Interesting phenomenon is the the sum of the auras in one town makes the whole town aura. In Plovdiv for example live many people with love and likes the nature therefore the aura shines in green. They have healing potential. But often the envy and fobies transformed the aura to dirty green and brown. The capital shines with orange yellow colours because of the big financial potential and the leaders. The stress, unhealthy ambitions, the lies and the low moral has vizualized even in cosmos. If there's an equipment with aurical vision we will see that the aura of Sofia has weaken. She bearily has light and it is poor yellow.

The aura of Varna for a decade is purple and lavender coloured. This colour shows the energy of the people that has high intuition and paranormal abilities. But the often depressions and nervness the people have lower the vibration to grey and dark purple colours. The villages between Rila mountain, Rodopi and Old mountain have white aura , pastel green and indigo. The poornest and the other bad feelings transforms the energy of the small villages into pear red, but even then the people there staz connected to the nature, Earth and traditions.

I continue to heal more two months. But i was convinced i should fight not with the deseaes but what causes them. This stays deeply hidden in soul. The patients were already many when i made the desician and to stop healing. My goal was very human-ic but the way i practise was very wrong. Magic cleaning happen to be a mistake. When i was in Moscow many extrasenses told me that i was not right. 'Don't break magics. You're not making a favor to people and you are not doing good to yourself too' And they were right. It is better to explain people that they anre 3 in 1 - body, soul and spirit and to teach them how to defend themselves from an energetic impact. It was the same as grandpa Iliicho have done with me before few years. Actually this is the mission of a master and the enlightened human, to give to his pupil the chance to cross alone the peak of the enlightenment. Therefore all will develop the intuition and to help to the Spirit of mother Nature to regenerate. But I did it wrong to help the person and to bring the salvation without any action of its side, and this it doen's desire from all of its heart and soul. Because everything is given from the skies to pro look and conscoiuos us. And if we give 10 000 leva what the magicians want for correction of the karma we will only see how much they desire our money and nothing else.

These thoughts were running through my head. Then i was told that before i was born on Earth i have reincarnation on Sirius. 'Very soon everyone will talk about it but for now keep it in secret.' - warn me from the parainformational channel. Through it they send me 4 digits code to the star 6283 D . It is placed in 9 sunlight years from us, but when I enter this code capsule for astral flight it takes my consciousness throught tunnel base on MArS exactly for 6,54 seconds. I go through dimentions and with my eyes i see many interesting things - cosmic ship by the Orion's escadril,, fights in the interdimensional spaces, build of a stars and planets. Except cosmic bases like tunnels, also there is other ships for travel through time and space for other purposes. On Orion and Sirius i found a rooms with enormous monitors. On them I with several other creatures i looked my past reincarnations not only on Earth but also on other planets. I stayed in front of it and with thought-form i changed the vision on the monitor. Before 15 years there was not touch screens with what i can now compare this fabulous technology. It is not the same as you don't touch it but it is near. From our planet there sre optical connetions for many worlds, but our consciousness is matrixed to work on particular lenght of the wave, which means that we see only physical world. With 352 symbols that was different level of spiritual and mental evolution and vibration, a human can reverse its personality withit the 352 forms its physical proection. And the paralel sferas and dimentions that we can enter are 756. Or 352×756 it makes 266 112 worlds thta a human has the right to enter. This shows that even in physical bodies for us it is possible to climd upper. And as the world is more thin we have gathered more and more power. There every our thought is an order for the Universe and we have what we asked for on the second. This is the reason why the most powerfull healing happend when a man is paraying to the saints - Buddah, Allah, Jesus Chistos, Moter Mary and the Creator itself. They live in the high level of cosmic DNA light. The praying person has connected subconsciously with that place and its high vibration provoce the universal laws to work for itself. With other words he receive first healing in the upper spiritual world and then it transits it in the low material world. On practise an ill man who believes in the power of the higher world when it raise the energetic vibration it receive a healing at the moment. This was what i should do to raise the ill man to cosmical level and cosmical spirit and the rest the Universe and the Creator has given to it.

Elevators to the other world

Next point of my teaching was told ,Enter an astral elevator. What in the name of light was that?

They wanted from me to open a holes in the time space continuum to guide the souls that were between the worlds. The exercise has hygiene efect- to clean the towns and villages from damage impact. You saw that in one town or neighbourhood happen more murders and incidents compared to another. Before sometime for example in the capital neighbourhood Belite brezi has many criminal incidents. At the end a barrets has fight each other because they can not put up with. They take the weapons and make blood bath. Surely there's a human mistake and misunderstanding between two source. This wont cause such damages if the astral space in the neighbourhood was not such dirty. The low spirit are trying to convince thespirital weak people and they take different things such alkohol and drugs. From years in Bulgaria is comenting that we a first in highway incidents. And noone has thought that may be there's reason outside the law for what we say always that is not enough strict. We live in a town that people can not walk without meeting ghosts. If some of them stick to us we are starting to be weird. Also it makes the phenomenon knows through years called obsession. The ghost closes the cosmic channel to the person to its cosmic level and obsessed the will. In this situation a man started to be such confused as it is the ghost. After a man's death only the most pure structures-souls succeeded to go through the dimentions. This confused with unharmonical vibrations leave on Eart to be cleaned. The ghost are energy informational substances that can stay in the space between 100 and 2000 and god save the alive ones. Because this invisible garbage has damaged the life conditions on Earth for physical live. The people feel depressed without a visible reason they take decisions that in 70 per cent of the cases has bad consequences to themselves and their relatives. All this is because of the bad influence that we exist in. With its bad impact were familiar the ancients. For to harmonize the place they have taught us with many technics such as Feng Shui teaching.

To me i was given an instruction to harmonize Bulgaria, because a new is coming and we have to be very clean for the change. I started the next mission which has gone through the funeral park in my home town Lovech. For this purpose the sky powers has showed me very powerful pray. I said it in the dusk of the day with my right hand in the air. The space on 20 feet in front of me and around 5 metres high has neared like a cordeon it takes the shape of metal grey conus. It has 1,5 metres length but strange why it pointed our dimension. I thought i have did something wrong because to me it has to show the other dimension with its angle. But there were no mistake. It creates something like waterspiral that takes away nearly one hundred ghosts. I could see then in the moment when they were in front of the powerful absorber a moment before they disappear. After ten minutes the conus has closed and everything around was quiet. The feeling i felt was fabulous like samathi, like i was one with God. In next days i opened a few such conuses as well. The sky powers told me that i should do elevator for the lower levels because not all of these souls were for the upper levels. There were dark souls as well. There i found that Heaven and Hell has exist and were not only bible myths. Many ghosts has understand that in town they come a ,cleaner‘ and started to hide in the neighbour towns. Then i did other technics. I observed the space vertical and horizontal as on a skener. I dropped a ray that goes in all directions and when i receive a shake in my right hand i know there is a ghost that left. This was the signal to want for help a cosmical angel guard. After seconds it appears a disk shaped light. It comes right to the ghost that left and takes it to its level of evolution. And where was that?

I had been banned to talk about that but now i can talk. The informational codes of the Earth are running through already. For that purpose it has been created another planet to take the earth souls on it. It has clear astronomical coordinates in the space. I was in Russia and there an experts declined its existence unofficially. ,But we also should keep the secret for now, because the human is not ready for that news.' they say.

With my help for this place has gone many fighters that has walked through the streets of Lovech with patience. Before 1944 year they have been torched and executed from the police. The possibility for their salvation was realized in 1999.

The heart of the town

After the astral elevators my teachers has showed me how to find and defend the town's cores. Till that moment i didn't have an idea that the phrase ,rhythm of the town' is not just a sentence. I was surprised to find that the big towns has energetic hearts. It is a sphere that is circulating to the clock site. Torsionally beating has running all the energies that has crossed in the town- the auras of the people, animals, plants, the energy of the water, the thoughts of the visible and invisible creatures, magics, the impacts from the cosmos and the earth, and also from the interdimentional space. If the energy heart is shining with all the colours of the rainbow brightly and has spin evenly, this means that big part of the people that live there has positive energies and vibrations and have a high level of consciousness. Every town with population up than 7 777 people has a core and points for energy inforamtional access to it. The towns of the atlants has been organized that way. The infrastructure has left in the space in collective consciuos and sub-consciously every town that nowadays people build is connected to it.

The Lovech heart has spin on right comparatively rhythmic. It was placed in the centre under one tile marked with X by someone. I received sky order to replace it because its energetic was very unstable. According to what i was tolld from the upper dark forces could penetrate and change the direction of spinning on left, which can dammit whole town to crazyness and chaos.

I stand at done to the place. With a special pray and entering a 5 digit code for access of symbols, i pulled the astral reactor of the society and give it new coordinates and place it the Old town. Its new home i sanctify with a ritual. But this was not all.

,Go outside the town in 8 points and let go rays to the heart. In it you should connect them and make a ninth as central which you took to the cosmos with same combination of ritual and codes. After that from it you will form 4 secondary rays. Then you build and pyramid for defence of a whole town. Every ray you will put with extra light that bring the informational codes we gave you. If the attack of evil impact has crush the main one and the secondary, the paralel will defend the town, before the keepers of Harmony intervene. , has instruct me the invisible guides. After that they gave me access to en energy with strange vibration, with which i should cover the pyramid. I followed algorhytm for a light construction, which the guides somehow has implemented in my head. I was wondering what is this attack that can hit our town and the country? The purpose was what we shine on our territory should go through freely our teritory and go to earth and cosmis efir and the negative that comes could not penetrate. We talk about zombiing, negative impacts, psyhotronic and astral bombs, everything that black mags and alliances of evil creatures and governments want to damage to our country. There were also one more reason for the mission and it was ,Canalizing of hyricane, earthquakes and floods‘.

UFO shaken the Earth

We can not miss the proofs for UFO before the devastating earthquakes on Earth. Tenths of metal spheres and disks have been under the sky in Western Turkey on 17. August 1999. Then for 45 seconds an 7,6 on Rihter earthquake has hit town Izmir and 30 000 people have died. Before the earthquake the see near has been red and the temperature hit 45 degress Celsius. ,Many fish and crabs have died. The net of the sialors burned and the stones become black although in the region there is no vulcanos. On the shore there were flying UFOs and unseen lights and there were rumble of blasts.' said the local people.

A decade later on 5 April 2009 analogical phenomenon there was in Italy before it swallow the town of L'akuila. Upon a street in Milano has seen giganting shining UFO. The military were aware that these night upon Italy there was strenghtend presence of UFOs. Upon the region of Abruzo has flyied giganting cosmic ship with triangle form. Hours after that Italy has lived a big tragedy - earthquake of 6,3 Rihter. The devastating quakes continue and the shining plates were seen to fly over Rome, Milan and Central Italy.

We also have evidence how shining UFOs has appeared before big earthquakes. In March 2009 there was an earthquake in Macedonia and shaken the whole region. The most powerfull quake was 5.2 on Rihter and was feeled in whole territory of Bulgaria. Beofre that four shining balls were seen above village Smochevo in region of Rila. They came from the highway E 79 and goes with big speed and hang on the mountain. People that were there in that time said that they have seen an alien flotilia. Turist have seen it also and have said in intenet that hte armade was not standing on one place but moving to Beli pat. It is an old way connecting town Dupnitsa to the Rila monastery. On it it was carried the body of saint Ivan Rilski. This is the reason to be known from the people as saint way very energetic. In the moment it is analyzed by the ornithologist why the wall is used by the birds as their path. According to the tales of the local the cosmic ships cross this particular path but when they stopped they become in sphere forms and dropped a ray to the Earth. The objects were shining in blue that lights brighter. Nearly after midnight the ships went to direction of Petrich. Is it a coincidence that a while before the ground has shaken on 24.may 2009 has been observed shining balls in the sky. Is it also a coincidence that the shining ball have appeared again next year 2010 before another earthquakes that hit Sofia?

In 2005 foreign government realize a big project. It started a psycho bomb for self-destruction with low capacity. After that many people have told me that at the same time they felt a thought for suicide. There from nothing as you sit and what serials or football match in your head comes a thought for suicide. This thought right away hanged to old traumas - unsuccessful love, a bank credit, which because of panic and fear goes to millions of levas in your mind. Bum of suicide have in Japan constantly, also in Scandinavian countries and Russia where the experiments does not stop. In the USA most vulnerable are the soldiers. What about the birds, the fish and crabs that have died every year without any reason? At the beginning of 2011 started to rain skewers, crows and pigeons from the sky in the USA, Canada, New Zealand, Sweden, Italy. What is hidden in it?

Part of the cataclysms are energetic attacks. Their source is three - evil thought-form generated from a machine, person or creature, experimental weapons - climate, seismic. Of course there is third objective reason of the swinging of Earth and sky, because of displacement of the layers. But as a percentage the false quakes, torandos and hyricanes and the natural ones are 50 to 50. Take birds and think of why they often die alone ?

Very famous become the 'chemtrails' that translates chemical trails, and more correct should be trace in the sky. They have appeared everywhere - upon Europe, USA, Canada even on the Pacific ocean. I want to aware your that this is not the next conspiracy theory but a real fact. Pictures and videos are in internet and everyone could see them. Mainly it is a plane that drop chemical traces. Then they become in something like clouds. Under this experiment there the program HAARP which means high auroral reasearches programm. There'S a complex on the territory of the military poligon Alyaska for ionosheric reasearches. The complex is enormous. On 60 quadrate kilometers there's gigantic antenna including a net of a 300 little antennas. They made enormous power in the ionosphaera that is bigger than the sun activity. Other way to impact the ionosphaera is to spray in it a chemical reagents to a particular place with focused radiowaves. In this way they can impact to the auroral parts on the North pole or to create localized high ionic places in the ionosphere - a plazma with tenth of kilometers wide. The main goal is with these ionospheric parts to try to control the climate and to make earthquakes, tornados and floods. Of what price? Pooring away tons of chemical substances from the plains, modify the athmosphere and turns it into electrical plazma used for military purposes. The air we breathe is full with synthetical substances and toxical materials - barii soles, alluminium and for someone also radioactive torii. These materials are taken the role of electrolits to raise the electricity capactetfor military radio waves and radars. But they a poison with arsenic in it , that impact on the normal behaviour of the imune system. The chemicals lead to alzheimer, leucemia and other oncological deseaeas. Only small percentage of the military radars, projects and modifications are visible. What does we not see is also dangerous. The Ionosphere. The Earth and its habitants has been continuously bombarding with high frequency microwaves. They are used to manipulate the atmosphere, meteorology and gather information for to produce tektonical weapons - false create of earthquakes. in 1990 The NATO officially explains that every plane can change the atmosphere with spraying polymers, that absorb an electromagnetic radiation. An American patent describes how crossed polymers has been sprayed and that went to stormy rain. Before 40 years in the Vietnam war the americans used chemical agent called ,Olive oil' during the operation ,Popeye' that causes strong storms and rain. During the war to the regym of Slobodan Miloshevic serbian told how black clouds came on the bright blue sky and after a minutes started storm with rains and hail. It is not secret that the alliance NATA under dark forces hide its plans for ,Climatic weapons' and the purpose is that until 2025 to control the climate, creating the storms, rains, fogs, earthquakes and floods. The play with ionosphere leads to regulating the sun light, and transform it in powerful climatic weapon. In the sky they creates places with magnyfyng glasses, mirrors, that taken gigantic quantity solar energy to one particular point on the Earth. But playing with forces that are created to give life and not to take it has its price. The false generate of elements is going out of control. the box of Pandora is opened and there is no turn back. The birds and sea creatures are most sensitive. And when these creatures dies it is very bad situation for the human. The ozone hole and the global warming are also made by these dark forces. This is an ecological terrorism and keeps a man in fear and obedience. Hidden societies kept by creatures that stay in the conspiracy for destruction of the humanity. Thew also infect with viruses, bacterias and microplazma the air and the water that turn into spread of deseases. Gene modified microorganizms in the food, lead to alergies and mutating they became a dangerous viruses. But this happen on level human.

Bulgaria also as a spiritual being also generates energetic flows and cosmical informational codes. It also has centres - chakras, in which powers of the sky and the Earth have meet. There there are the divine informatioanl codes that kepp the balance of our planet to be ready for the existance of a human, animals and plants.

The shining balls that came up before big earthquakes and directing rays to the energetic centres aim only to cause earthquakes. The shining phenomenon has duplicate nature. One of them are charges from the ionosphere -the climatic weapons. And as if we are not enough with the earth demons but there are also outside earth- aliens. Even the word aliens is not correct as they are in alliance with earth forces. Among us there are many creatures that i also see. They come from inside Earth, from another paralel dimation with its shining ships and with experimental mission they aim earthquakes. Someone do it because their ships has charged by the tension that an earthquake creates. Others like reptilians feed with negative emotions of the people - fear, suffer, pain, generated quakes for to exist. These are the ones that has obsessed many of the politicians and stay behind the experiments with the humanity. Although a rough invasion in humanity development is forbidden they continue to rule the world order. Very dangerous are also the russian black mags, that are trying to crumble Bulgaria for years. Our nation is called to wear the most ideal DNA. It is a testament from the protoatlants. It is not a coincidence that in Bulgaria has born many people with paranormal abilities.

But it is not just the Earth, in the whole Universe there is lack of quality genes. And ours is the one most perfect and it is a thorn in the eyes of enemies. May not believe but this is the sacred truth i am told to say. Because of this reason often dark forces from USA, Russia, Israel send destructive attacks such as elements, astral bombs and magical thought-forms to the most vulnerable points of Bulgaria - its energetic centres. In Moscow for example there are forces that can not put up with the fact that although the ikonomical and financial power, the russians think of Bulgaria as their energetic mother, swing to the slavic, Orthodoxy and writing, the arhetip of Heaven and Creation. After 1990 most of the ways the attack is made by the energetic vampire Boris Zolotov and his students. Last year tehy planned some devastating earthquakes on our territory. According to my information one of them has planned to crush Sofia on the 24. May the festival of Slavic writing. Three days before they hit, me and my people has dropped three rays rom Vitosha mountains to protect the city. With its help we succeeded to unblock two of the three main cores of the town. When from the other side of Black see has shot the negative astral bombs, they might thought that the chakras of the city are blocked, the tention could not absorbe from the city core and as a result the ground will quake. Luckily the chakras has suck the weapons and went through inside the earth. We have an earthquake but very very low as it was planned. The citizens might not understand at all but we don't have enough time and the third centre in Banishora stayed blocked.

In the name of Merkaba

At the end of July 2009 the keepers of harmony told me that there is a threat across the Black sea. Through the code mental channel i send a message for energy fight. There i send the message to the energy warriors in Bulgaria to be ready for fight. The preparation is not to dig a trench the meaning that will see the rough materialists. Mainly our work is to harmonize the chakras and to keep the shield called Merkaba. The Merkabe is energetic structure that has ability to save paople and places situated in our dimention. It is sonsist by two tetraedars. Everyone of it has four sites which are equilateral triangles. Merkaba is in fact two triangle pyramids one in another and creates the so called star of David. Elektromagnetic field with this same form is across the human body. The two tetraedars focused the energies coming from the Cosmos and the Earth. For some ezoteric writers Merkaba is the emanation of male and female beings vibrating in perfect harmony. The tetraedar with the peak upon is the male energy, and the other is the female energy. They are moving one to another in different directions. When this form is spinning it has crossed the vibrations of the three bodies - physical, mental and emotional.

In fact in the word Merkaba has descrbed the whole process that is the balance between the light comes from the Cosmos that brings the spirit and gives a light to our bodies. According the etimology Mer means lighting fields that spin around itself in reverse direction, Ka is the spirit and Ba means body. In activation in particular way to these lighting fields of Mer-Ka-Ba around the human is hidden the key for our aility to travel between the dimentions. For the process of teritorial defense Merkaba is very precious as these are the three energies crossed - electric, magnetic and bioenergy.

The geometric figure has been known from the mayans and egyptians. They also have known that only this earth form has the ability to gather the three elements of the mind - Cosmos, Earth and Human. Around everything that exists in our dimation there is such a tetraedar star. Therefore to our level of consciousness this is the best defence. The complex lighting constructions that my teachers have told me to defence Bulgaria in its end variant has presented such system of by-pyramid shaft.

In the morning of 5 August 2009 the russion mags have shot a ray to Bulgaria. It was so powerfull that crush the first construcion of rays that we build under Varna, Kavarna and Shabla. As it could not pierce the ,umbrella' it went to the black see shore. Luckily uopn the Old mountain it ricocheted in our main energy protection and then it goes to Black see in depth of 30 km. An earthquake of 5 on the Rihter scale has hit us, but the consequences could be far more devastating without the defence. Engineers to this shot as most of 90 percents of all is psyho vampires like Zolotov and his students. Because of the impacts of this one vampire and many more in the years i created tetraedar protections in the main cities - Haskovo, Svishtov, Varna, Malko Tarnovo, Stara Zagora, Plovdiv, Kiustendil. I turned the spheres and cleaned the astral space with light up to micron, as i was showed at the beginning. Today the whole country has 12 rays, that creates a giant pyramid. Behind it there is another that when is needed started to spin in the direction of the central ray of Bulgaria. Its particular coordinates are a secret but the most sensitive people has feel it between Aprilci and Troyan, where it is place the heart chakra of Bulgaria. There it is kept the spirit of Atlantida the informational bank. The central ray is kept by another little ones that i placed in different periods with my energetic brothers, and directed it to Troyan, Sopot, Lovech and Karlovo. The whole Merkaba is ensured also from Gabrovo that also 'keeps the stability of the central ray of Bulgaria. In 2010 from the high comes the information

,The mission for protecting Bulgaria has over and just started.'

Landing

Bulgaria is full with phenomenons but they stay deaf and blind about their mission. I have found mine and its called - dimen-tions, energy fights and protection of the cataclyzmus- earth- quakes, hyricanes and floods. I am not a predictor nor a healer, even though i can do this as well. I soon thought that expept my group no one else have the knowledge but i have lied myself. There were some others enlightened on our territory. I did not see them but i found their induction stamp on the chakras that i crosss and unblock all over the country. I suspect that the eart harmonizators - i called them this way- are now very old and af- ter my activation in 1994-1995 i did not find their traces. After the keeper of universal harmony has enlightened me in all thier secrets my predessors has gone to rest. According to me they did not gone to total pension but continue with the energy fights in the dimentions. I found sometimes their astral trace on the por- tals around Orion, Andromedas and the star Arctur. Two times someone has save me from the 2 meteres tall reptilians without represent itself.

But this time on Earth i have other fight - this with material world. The sky teachers have given me incredible knowledges but wanted from me to build three spiritual centres. In them they say you will teach with our help to energy and spiritual practices the new race - indigo children. To conclude this part of the mission i needed serious financial resources but i could not get it only with walks over the portals of the universe where the only value is the spiritual power and aurical evolution. Then i reched to the conclusion that at least for a while i should ground up myself and to live in the 3D life. I wanted to ensure a financial resources to make some kind of business. I soon realized that my open channle to the upper world is incompatible with the work in the material world. I lower my vibrations and he closed itself. According to my plan after a while i should start aghain my spiritual work but for now i shoud think of the being now and there.

To go through maximum fast i should have put up with the four elements that is build the 3D world and the survival of the creatures there. The first is known as spiritual guru. This is the light creative part of the male element that causes thehigh earth love and the creativity. The second one is the ,cruel destroyer‘ the dark site of the male begining. It has power opppsite to the creativity to clean and fight with the old. The other two elements are female but this is only conditionally as the two elements are interweaved in the two sexes. The third is ,priestess prostitute‘ . She is ready to go with every god in order to feed her apetite for power and magical authority. If a man provoce in other this earth power when needed will succeeded big control and progress. The last element of our being is the ,goddess mother‘. This is the whole caldron of antagonizm that a human is transformed to go further beyond and upper. These are the arhetype energies that move on subconsciousios level the human in 21 century. Without its development we are just lost souls in the earth matrix. They showed also the four level on consciuos that move thank to the law of rezonans. When we switch to one of them we attract people and events that help us to walk in the chosen direction. If we want spirituality with the hwole our beings automatically the crystal computer on earth gives us a vector with such vibrational frequency. As a result we attract circumstances that help us to enter in the nonmaterial level of conscious and to be maximum long there before we want something else. Many people do mistakes and then they are wondering why the low of the 4 elementsdoes not work for them. For example they one at one point the goddess mother - the real love, that is for whole life, but as a habit they continue to search for it in the discos. There the vibrational wave is very low. This is like if we want to capture a romantic radiowave on the FM stereo wave that there is only chaos music and hard rock. If we want a change the inertia is contraindicated. The new level of conscious install in us absolutely unknown personality, that have to meet maximum fast and to embrace.

I wantes work and business on ground level and the resonans of my consciousness enter to the world of ideas and gather me with the richest man in Bulgaria. The life is one big puzzel that we can do alone and there is an option to bring more people to help. Without unification of the strengths nothing is happen. But in vibrational level of a rough capitalizm don't expect very light events if you don't follow your intuition.

I walked in my mother's home village Stefanovo. The autumn leaves have created colourful carpet that reminds me of the shining portals of three faced Sirius. I cross them while before i enter the inforamtional layers. I belong to the central ship Sirius-mother that move very slow in the orbit. When i link to it i covered with jelly material in dark blue colour that gives me mega access to the systems and passengers on board. Most of them a high conscoius beings here to help the symbiotes. Around it there were the eskadriles of Pleiades, Orion, Arctur, Andromedas, Polar star forming the great cosmic headquarter.

But the autumn portal now leads me to one abandoned mill. When i saw it like Don Kihot i thought that these are the giants that can make the needed financials at least for the first centre. I was surrounded by some friends. I share my thoughts and they lough at me that this was the greatest utopia that they hear about. And may be they were right. The abandoned building looks like swiss cheese and even smells like that. Everything that can be stealed was disappeared there were different holes that were full with playing cats and mouses. The sight didn't stress me. Soon i go to auction for that building and i won it. With sweat i recover the mill. I have on my site the goddess mother that i called.

After the third month the enterprise has started working and soon it has thank me for my bravery. The pure profit that comes is starting to get bigger. On the half year reached the fantastic for me 100 000 leva. The situation soon gets bad. Speculants imported cheap flour from Turkey and crushed the bulgarian market. The mills one by one started to bankrupt. The ones who stayed on the surface were the bad guys with the gold neckless, moved from the archetype of distraction , very soon privatized everything. They told to the owners to rethink their own site they obsessed their property in one or another way.

I was not ready for ground wars because i knew that if i lead the cruel destroyer i will gather more power but at the end it will destroy me as it made with all dark heros of the Transition.

I get the Solomon decision to make a step behind and i was not wrong. There i preorientated in other work - invest everything in the agrarian economy. As i search for a buyer for the mill i made a project for 200 000 leva in the SAPARD. In the economy property of the future i planned to build three pyramids to focus the energy. This would have been the first agricultural project in the world that integrate the modern life with powerful magical practises. I made detailed plan but the work has gone to fall. The programm for european help seriously has stopped during Ivan Kostov's leading. I was very angry, even the meditation does not help me to throw the negative energy. But as the people said every evil is for good. In that time i realized that against me there was a conspiracy. On the bottom of it laying my relatives which has hurt me deeply. They had the following plan - to steal the money from the common accounts of the european subsidies, and i as a marerial responsibly face will take the whole fault at the end.

In the interest of the saint truth my whole troubles started in the moment i closed my cosmic channel. The last thing my teachers said , Do not close your magical portal to the dimentions; but i did not listen to them. I wanted to be again ordinary person.

My life has spin again as a broken disk with a song that i hated from the bottom of my soul. When this ,song‘ started a karmic provocation happend that i thought i have escaped from them. But this tiem the blows started to rain from alll sites. And again it bacame hell under the sky. I just have started good with the busi-ness and then i found the my wife is cheated on me with a relative. The incest has turned my world upside down. The money from SAPARD has to go through its company i found out the whole plan to be robbed and discredited. On top of everything was a book with spells belonged to the grandma of my wife that happen to be a witch and make witchcraft to me. Again a rain of pagane rituals for death, bioenergy attacks, plazma hits form the Cosmos- for two months my hair has white and drop. I was good in the ma-terial world and again happen the sam that had to destry me for a chance in my youth. As someting upon has insisted to showed me that my being without its spiritual part was nothing. And to try to escape from my universal predestination is fatal and will bring me only life cataclyzm grief and tears. And that heppend. I fell into the life of live. I don‘t know if it is because of the magic but my parents have the side of my wife. They take away my inheri-tance and through me on the street. My cheting wife left alone in 100 quadrat metres apartment alone in the centre of the town. The days and nights has merged. Hodjas has surrounded me and has make spells for death. They wanted to reach me from Plovdiv and Haskovo. I killed the two with my lazur sword, but they were coming form Andola much more, as these in my country was not enough. For the short time as i step on the path of energy war-rior , defendinf Bulgaria from earth and outside earth enemies i have gathered more enemies. They werre still scared from me but they feel my weakness. The jackals has been oredered in circle and were waiting for the most convenient moment to freckle my find aurical bodies and to free me from the heavy chains of physical slavery. My biggest tragedy was that i clearly realized my doom. Without defence, with connection with the spiritual warriors from Pleiades and the symbiotes from Sirius that guided me and gave me power before , i was weak and easy prey. I don't know if it is a coincidence but for a week turkish TIRs has gone to the counter direction on the road and i escaped a crush for a seconds. Thatk god there was stones and i managed to escape a collision, i bearily survived.

On top of my 35 years old they give me powerful bioenergetic attack. The evil powers take life from my hands and take me to the abyss deviding the two worlds. As a result from the two black rituals - psyhotrone attack from a russian mag and the hodja i make pre-death agony. My heart started to beat in my ears and needles block my seven chakras. I could not bear it any more i wanted to dematerialize to be gone. My muscles were more strong that the bones, i could not breath nor move. I had gone i hell agony. From the pain my tears started to fall alone. My reincarnations started to move in front of my eyes. In this time between life and death 12 shining creatures circled my body and one take me to the paralel dimation Alef Omicron 233, so i did not fell the pain any more. This pain surely will have kill me after minutes. Other i don't remember. After the energy attack have passed the saints bring me again to Earth. I awaken in the apartment which i have hired. I eat two spoons of yogurt and i have asleep then. I awaken up after three days this was the time that was needed for the shining beings to restart my energetic. The devastating cataclysmus has its positive side because it opened my eyes again to the spiritual world and my teachers that i have turned back. There i again could have the knowledges of the Creator, the Universe and its habitants.

Without a home and a family i should start again to heal for survival. One friend gave me 200 leva. With part of it i pay for the office that i hired for a month. Meanwhile i sell all company property that was left on my name. I took the money and go to live to Troyan. I have taken big doze of malice and agression that lowers my vibration. With my paranormal abilities I found that from the lavender and white my aura has became dark green. From the biggest soul pain that i received from my nearest people my Anahata - the heart chakra was not functions correct. The keepers has regenerate me on low level but with the memories for my family i colapssed again. It is the first chakra from the high energetic centres and without it i could not climb higher to the dimentions where i would have replaced the organ with its star analog recover with lighting speed. But been on the ground i was nothing else to do that to wait for the universal healer the time to do its job.

Every morning i walked in the Troyan balkan. I breath pure prana and release the negative energy as it teached Peter Dimkov the Healer. Down in town i found good people. With their crystal clear white auras they healed me with their presence. They give me to eat real meat, sheep milk and honey. Every night i dreamed in front of the fire with 200 grams of the local elixir - plume rakia with herbs.

My emotional recover was going slowly according to the physical. I often went to depression. Then i went to the dark site to search for revenge. I go to dark, gloom and abyss i crossed the lower worlds and delete the creatures there. I cut them with light, spheres i pierced three at one time with rays.

By accidence under peak Botev i found megastructure, a machine - super technology that works the same as the astral elevators, that teached me in the past. It cleans the negative energy from the space very effective without asking for cosmical guards. From there i found an underground - crystal hall. In this hall is placed the personal crystal of Bulgarians. It is build for mega activation of the cosmical being, to find out who we are and what mission have we on earth. I choose Troyan on purpose, because there in the interdimensional space is kept the spirit of Bulgaria. I relaxed actively and re think all that happened and lead me to that path. In my head i had memories all the time. As for example how with my ex wife we walk in the park. In that time i started to lead a mental dialog with my not born child. Then i told to my wife what happened and what i get from the informational wave in the invisible world.

- The spirit told me that our child is gone through Agarta from Rila mountain- the beyond world and it waited only for us.

- Stop with your spiritual things. First of all it is impossible to know this as no one knows such things. And secondly i don't want to spoil my figure, replied she.

- It is a spirit from Atlantida and it is doesn't interested of your things. It said that has mission on Earth and we delayed it. It related souls has already been born and it's waiting for us seventh month already. It is losing temper.

- No i don't believe, she again replied

Twenty metres below one tiny swallow dropped from its nest and go to my wife's head. My ex wife was very stressed and started to cry. The situation was a sure omen that the spirit want to be born. I was also not ready as i was new in my business works. I was surprised by the urgency of the spirit. It also wanted to be a ram as astro sign. 'No' i was also stubborned. With the time i see this as mistake as many doors that were opened to me started to close misterically. I was convinced for one more time that above there's a big power. If you are in harmony with it you are going further. If you stay opposite harmonical accords of the Universe you are started to go in circle not only on spiritual but also in material world. The last event before my child is born happened on the Seventh lake in Rila. With its future mother we go on adoration up. From the Bliznaka lake come two bright lights one purple and one blue. My first child is already a fact, and i suppose that the second will also come to search for incarnation.

For a short period of time i has lived through so many things that a normal person did not see through whole life. I formed second group with friends with gifts in Svishtov. There we teached each other by the information that i captured through my spiritual channel - how to see our past life, to scan the destiny, to vizualize causal bonds on the karma. In this substance i passed to touch untill today as to touch karma is like to change moter oil - you are going to get dirty.

Gencho from Ruse has problem with his shoulder. He went to several medicals but the pain still exists. He told me about his problem and we decide to do a regression - turning into past life . The most interesting is that i did it as i have done this my whole life. I did not hypnotized he stay awake when i enter up to his higher chakras. I connected my energy to his. For not to start going on all the reincarnations which will be dangerous i asked to be found an incarnation that he has such pain like in this life. I go bravely behind to past lives. After the 20th minute we reached about 1400 after Christ. Then it came up the video from the problematic incarnation, that Gench has been injured. He see himself as a soldier on the battkefield. He was whole covered with blood and one spear has just hole his shoulder. Then he dies but i did not let him see that on purpose. I stopped it before this agonizing moment. Then i told him to imagine that the spear did not hole him but passes through him, then i right on time transfered his conscious to the reality. Untill now the person doesn't have problems with his shoulder.

A travel to the halls of Amenti

I myself travelled everywhere but it was forbidden for me to see my egyptian reincarnation. I don't know why but i feel it is conncted with the Kivot. With the time i remember one revelation conncted to Moyseus. According to the Bible with growing the egyptian empire it started to conquer other countries near by. The egyptians reached Israel and the jews this time were weak they become slaves. They were taken to Egypt to be used as workers for the faraon. One of then oredered to start genozid and started to kill every male jewish baby. One jew to save her child put it in a basket and leave it to swin through the river Nil, that brings it to the faraon's palace. There one of his daughters take it and raise it. They gave him the name Moyseys - which mean ,taken from the water'.

Moyseys has been raised in the palace and receive egyptian priest education. When he saw the suffer of his people his genetic bond with the jews has awaken and he leave his preist rank and live with his people in the slave's huts. The faraon was surprised of this decision and more surprised by some bad omes that happend and interpreted by Moyseys that they are evidence of the god's will for the people to be released from slavery. Accoring to the writtings God warn the jews that has come the moment to take their path to their lands. The evening before this happend has been ordered to make bread and eat it ready to go. Also they must make sucrifice a lambs and with thier blood to cover their doors, because the death would have gone through Egypt this night and to take every first born child from every house not marked with lamb's blood. In the morning there was a dead in evry egyptian house including the palace were the heir to the throne fall dead. The faraon was desperate and as it was predicted by Moyseys he finally let the jews to go. But after the jews go in the desert, egypt-tians started to follow them and an army was send to bring them back. Then with God's help Moyseys divided the Red sea into two and the jews cross the see and then the see closed and the egyptian army have been drowned. This is the bible myth that was not have become reality without one very powerful weapon called Kivot. Its geographical place and content i have been known in my past reincarnation but have no access now.

Again according to the legend after jews escaped they go near Sinai mountain. There Moyseys has reached the top to pray and receive the ten God's will. When he came back with the will he found his people lost in idol pilgrimage and debauchery. Moysey impost repentance to his people and wanted to be melt the golden figures that they made during hie absence. From the gold according to God's will thay made an ark - Kivot. It has defined size and form, where to be place the plates with God's will. It was forbidden to be touched and the ones that touch it were hit by lighting. Some ezoterits think that the Kivot were powerful weapon with elektromagnetic power. And may be even a portal to the worlds. In it were thrown the violators of the law. The poors were left closed in dimention for a whole eternity.

During my contacts with the universal mind i captured the following ,The levits were which they keep the plates of Moysey - the Kivot. Everyone is searching for it in Etiopia and Jordan but it is kept in one hall under the peak of Jerusalem. Push the Kivot up to the dimentions for not to have any more fights for it on Earth. I perform the order. But whether i have replaced it physically in 8th dimention i still don't know. If i take only the astral proection outside of our world this means that it could not be found any more. Or at least if the Teachers dicided someting else and make it visible again. Now if the expedition enter in the hall where the ancient weapon is placed they will miss it as it is dematerialised.

This is the reason why worldwide nothing is discovered yet any more only bones and broken artefacts. It is far away not everything that can be dig is digged as someone think. Only the gold and crystal equipment are milions of tons. The archeology should search the space with machines and sceners that can see the dimentions but there's still time to be build such equipment.

All greatest rulers such as Napoleon Bonapart and Alexander the Great after they have the whole power on Earth, they were starting to search for the relics, because they know this will make them powerful on a universal level as well. Hitler was also aware of the power that is hidden in the pantheon of the civilizations before us. He was searching for the Kivot on a wrong place - in Tibet. It is known that the Fiurer has the spear of the destiny with which according to the legend is hit Christos. The blood on its blade give power and might to the one the owes it. Thanks to this the Third reih has become a world power. Hitler has the so called wien copy, in which has been built in nails with that Jesus Christ was nailed to the cross. The real copy is build by a jewish priest, son of Eleazar, a nephew to Aaron, the mag Fines. It stays hidden. The conquerers far more in the past time wanted to have the lighting of Zeus and the arrows of Apolon. Human is not going to know the truth about its being. Not yet. The mysteries in front of us will become more and more, because of our desire to have all the goodies, to rule the world, to be the one and only. This is a destructive motive that poluute the consciuos and the heart. For that reason all this is not given to us because we will destroy ourselves. Other reason is that our civilization should go alone to the big miracle called the island Atlantis, and not to take the evolution like that. Ones happend before thousands of year and were fatal.

Behind the folklor, myths and legends and hidden crystals with unearthly powers. One is stand above all and is called the Sphere from the hall of Amenti. In the moment it has been guarded in a circle hall under Egypt. I can see its centre like a column of crystal white light. The stone has been used to raise the mental vibration of the humanity and focus the light fotons from the Sun. It is surrounded by a portal with hieroglifs. Right on this place the ancient has made a connction with the hype mind of Sirius.

Today the mags wanted to pull out the relics from the dimention that they are hidden, unless our consciuosness is grown. After i teached to open a paths within the time and space i also tempt to see the relics. After we open a portal in the dimention with my group we take some key from some ancient palace. That visualized the subject in front of us but perhaps that might have been something else. According to the law of the intersecting poing for want you disere to have and what you should have, it is open for the human to take something from the dimention if he find the point of the need of this. But we as we walk see it and like that just take it and pulled it in our dimention. Soem days after it hapend something very strange. I was on a walk in the forest and on one path i heard a clatter. I saw in las second the shadow of a horse that come across me with neigh. From the fast moving of the horse i went in the spruit. But the most interesting is that the horse looks like it is from a circus, covered with a middlecenteries platform looks like armor. I don't know where it come from that miracle but the omen was clear. At dusk we did a nes seans and turn the key back.

In fact i have conviced myself that as we gather more magical artefacts on bulgarian territory we will be more guarded. But it seems that we have more than neccessary relics on our territory, if we know how to use its powers. And where are they and who are..i will keep that.

In the end of the winter of 2010 i came to Egyptian pyramids, to release my past life. For some reason it is not open for me to use it. I tried to enter several times as i needed that knowlege that was in it. In that particular reincarnation i have been teached to rule the earth elements. I wanted to awake this experience here because there are coming heavy days, with cataclysmus , the climat stays not stabile and Bulgaria should be defended and also the Old continent. I gradually started to remember the rules of the elements. In my left hand i concentrated the earth and the water, in my right hand - the fire andthe air, but i needed for some meteorological symbols with which i can stop the floods. I found them in the halls of Amenti under Egypt. I take also with me one vry small but powerful sphere.

I landed on Sofia airport in march. It passed two days and in Bulgaria started to rain a yellow snow mixed with a sand from the Sahara desert. According to the meteorologist the mix with Saa-hra sand was a usual event in the spring, but this year is covered also with heavy snow. My sin according to Amenti, on top of the female fest 8th of march,obviously shows what i have done and how to repair it. Before another storm in Bulgaria, i took the plane for Kairo. I turned back the crystal sphere in the underground palace. In it it is entered through energy portal, placed in the valley of the pyramids. But this is not the central spherus that is told in the myths. To it the access is forbidden.

The truth about Atlantis

As i already mentioned i was helping to the people to go to their deeply ancient reincarnations. To define the epoch my first question to then is to find out whether they are in male or female body. The second to see where they are and describe me the clothes they are in. The third thing was to hear the language that they are talking. In Atlantis there were no speech. When i myself turned back to my first material incarnation on Earth i saw myself as an avatar in enormous atlantic body. The dialogs around me is going through a telepatic way with strange sounds deep from the throught. The speech if we can talk about such is like the crackling of a bottle of wine. Then i realised the meaning of one my dream that is chasing me since i was a child. A Gigantic wave. It is long 100 meters above the see and is crushing all over me and i jumped and awake whole in water. That happend to be the beginnig of the apocalypse for Atlantis , that i obviously has lived before thousands of years. This is what i tried to reconstruct like a physical memories of the events. I found that some things are the same as the tales of the teosophies, but in the big part they show unknown parts that does not exist in the knowledge that we have for Atlantis.

Before atlants it was the lemurians civilization. The two was in war but the atlants has won. In thier civilization there were antagonic oriented circles , something like revolutioners. I was one of them. We fight against many injustice, but mainly against the experiments of some cast that htink of theirselves like they were gods, and rule the island. The elit did bioexperiments , and cloning and creating a monsters bring more troubles. The gene engineers created creatures that were against the nature that started to spiritualized with low bloodthirsty spirits from other worlds. After its death the spirits that were in this mutants has damaged seriously the energetic of the whole planet. Today these are the most powerful demons, known by the exorcizm that obsessed the people by different race, sex and religion. But then they were more than the outdoor dogs in 21. century. As the people walk on the streets the demons has obsessed them and the end, this body stays for the demon. It become a mass crazyness. With a cleaner of the astral fon we succeeded to close in interdimentional niche most of them, but some extremely powerful stayed. One, known as Ariman, creates his kingdon under the Earth. He now still obsessed earth people but not directly.

From my memories for Atlantis i was surely against the elit. It also creates another ,thing'. With the help of powerful crystal they moved Pluto that has been near Earth and send it to its end of the Solar system.

Pluto is the planet that rules the revolutions and the change of everything that is old. That is how the Creator has created it, to cut the negative qualities and transform it to something new after moveing the levels in the society. The main cast doesnt want a change as how it is now like organizations Bilderberg keep with their nails open the old order. That they try to move the root of the change. Two men with names Tall and Luol go inside the crystal underground halls and give codes for restarting and moduled the galaxy matrix. But the Creator on purpose has put a mistake in the code if some day we try to improve its ,creation' to disappear. This is how it happen. When the high priest has forgotten themselves they create a great catastroph. They fold the space in the whole Solar system. They blast the Vulcan planet, as how the old starspeller called it - Faeton. For that reason the orbit of the Earth has moved, causing planetarian cataclizm. Mars was also destroyed and the high level civilization that was on it, disappeared. Part of the marsians has rescued in 8th dimention. That is was i remember from the Atlantis. In the next sentences i will add the information reached us by historicals, ezoterians and prophets.

The Crystal Tauoiu

The atlants with the help of crystal could rejuvenate and this was they elongate their lives up to 1000 of years and more. This civilization has circled around one main very powerful crystal. It has moved the whole progress of Atlantis and according to survived informational files in the stral is calle Tauoiu. The atlants connected their consciuosness with the crystal and then they increase their psyhical energy to great heights. Other shining lettle stones they used for different equipment that creates antigravitation.

According to information of the prophet of 19. century Edgar Keysi the ancient civilization is build flying aparats and machines. The atlants, saw Keysi have caves with megapowerful weapons. They live in towns of about 2000 people organized around one mega powerful crystal - subconsciousness. In every moment every member of the society receive on time everything that is needed , because it has taken from informational bank by telephatical way. In fact if we think about our fifth civilization has organized its society around one invisible eye called internet. The central crystal has improved the brain capacity to certain maximum. Our brain works from 3 to 5 percent of its maximum. The atlants connecting to the crystal were reached the incredible 90 percent. This has gifted them to genials, phenomenal memory, insights like the Einstein's formula for relativity. To many of us this might see it strange but even the quarz, from which 60 percent is created the earth peel is powerful transformer of an energy. It is not strange that in modern electronic it is used the crystals because of their piezo electrical effect - transformation of the kinetical energy into electrical. Crystals has another feature - to produce electricity by heating which is famous as nature electricity. The ultra sound in medical and scientist equipment is made thanks of the feature of crystals to modelize the energy. Our century is also nothing without crystals even if we haven't got an idea of this.

The atlant's stone Tauoiu has also been crystal and as such has the feature of powerful adept of an energy by very high level. By my astral site he has got the ability to transform the vibrational, morfological, chemical and bioenergetic structure of the brain. It is a mistake to think that the atlants has born informed how to use the crystal, as the crystal has come for no where. They as the humanity has got keepers and helpers from the above.

Tauoiu has dropped from the sky by envoys from Sirius. Some siriusians has hit the border and reincarnated into an atlant's bodies. This is the reason why it is thought that the atlants are with allien roots. The atlants were very high, up to 2 metres and according to Platon they reached 4 metres. In the Era of the Lion, Atlantis has opened its shore for trading with the whole world. They communicate with berberians and basks in east, some indian tribes in west with which they started to cross over. Platon says the the greek god Poseidon and the other gods from Olympus were also atlants. The same is for the god Tot - the god of the arts in the egyptian mythology. That was not liked to people is that the atlants like the storms and whole fields were separated for experiments. In such a national parks has demonstrated atmospheric turbulence. The mortals did not like this kind of shows that often went out of control and destroyed their houses and animals, and sometimes even themselves. When big disaster happend the atlants has compensated the people but in most of the time they did not care about them. Their temperament give later food to be created the greek mythology.

Later the atlant lost the control to nature and that lead to big changes and finally to their disappearance. Atlants also could control the earth element. Vulcan eruptions were their favourite. The presenters of this civilization which is in many cases our pra nature, had many time for their experiments but not with their children. The atlants were immortals but could not ,produce' themsleves with similar. After the secret island was opened to the other world it started mixing of cultures with the other inhabitants from lower civilizations. The progeny of the interdividing process has taken place in the myth for the eart woman and the god thta bring it to half god - phenomenal human. He was not that tall, but according to nowadays they were hispolins. Many archeological experiments found from all over the world mysterials 2-3 meters skeletons. In Bulgaria were also found in the Rodopi and in Iambol an unique arheological artefacts.

After it came from the starts the magical stone in the moment of crushing to Earth it divided into many parts. According to siriusians instructions the parts had to be used by organizing a cores around the towns. But only the biggest part of Tauoiu was named like this and stays the capital's temple of Atlantis. The priest were trying to make it even more powerful and to jump over their abilitis, bodies and minds. As the time passed they have lost theirselves. They were captured in the trap of greed for resourses, that is trapped also our civilization. In one moment they did the inevitable, they directed a ray from the sun directly to the crystal Tauoiu. The crystal has energetised incredibly. As the atlants were connected to the crystal with their brains they started to go crazy. Large streams of new knowledges has come with the light but the atlants could not bear it. The ray has mixed with the earth elements and divided Atlantis into two parts, that sunk. The most higher priests has survived in different parts of the world. Tot gone to the South America. There leaded the inka tribe and build Machu Pikchu. Izida that comes by Venus, also gone to South America where it creates the actek's calendar. Hor found his second country in Babylon, and Ra gave the beginig of the ancient egyptian culture. Hermes, Zeus, Afrodite, Poseidon, Hera all went to different parts of the world from Tibet to

New Zealand. Where they came to everywhere thought of them as gods. Because they were keepers of a really god's qualities - fantastic technologies, control of the climate and the elements, eternal life including above religion moral and ruthlessness.

But let us turn back to the reason that led to the resettlement of the gods. The cataclysm described by Platon is also what I see. Perhaps there's a connection through the knowledge that is given to me that our native relatives were trying to reconstruct the solar system. And in fact they succeeded. Whatever the factology truth is it can be easily found, if our fifth civilization looks into the mirror and sees the reflection of their movements. In many cases we look like the Atlantes. We think of ourselves as gods and use maximum of the given resources. For one century the petrol is already gone. The coal, gold and ores continue to be dug but under the earth has opened such craters that whole cities could disappear, when the earth started to generate. Some of the most devastating earthquakes. We eat by the fruits of the nature, receive life from the sun, drink water, come through ice and comets by the space, but these resources are not ours. Other has created it and we do not have the right to destroy it. As the Moon which with its magnetic pole has stabilized the earth's axis to be possible the life for our fifth race. And the man what is he doing - started to sell parts of the Moon. This is as we could make auction and sell part of the universal machine. One is paid and goes with an engine, other with wheel shaft, third is buying the accumulator. But no one is thinking of the consequences. Because everything is connected. Every 20 minutes dies some animal or plant's species. There should have been new resonances in the thinking otherwise the planet is gone!

In year 2000 right on the spring equinox I made a contact with the ruler of the bees and the water. They said, Except of the people which are privileged, every animal species has one central spirit that controls it. Then they told me that before 200 000 years has made an experiment. 10 000 high evolved creatures come here from Orion, Sirius, Pleiads, Venus. They made a procedure of deleting the memories and reincarnated in Atlantis. Beside creatures with high evolution on the island were sent also animal species with the task to help the people. Horses came from Lokuma and are high evolved beings. They have sent to help human with the transport also to show what is dignity, pride, self-esteem, love.

The dogs are from the constellation Big dog and are here to teach us of fidelity and friendship. The cats, rabbits, squirrels are teleported from the Orion constellation and bring wisdom. The birds came from Sirius D and their energy give to ours humility, spiritual elevation and independancy. The animals are not here to be eaten, but we are here to keep the balance and stay connected with the light. Finally the bird came from our motherland Pleiades. We are here to show you that the life is left because of the love - to give without asking for receiving, as we give you honey and flowered the plants, for to exist the vital matrix. We won't kept anymore the experiment called humanity. You have the privilege every human to have a spirit, and for us there's only one spirit. And in spite of all this you behave like animals. We have helped you all that time to develop and survive. But now we take decision and the whole consciousness that guides us go to another universe.'

After this the word have been given to the water, It is good for me on Earth, I transformed, I carry information, I connecting the worlds. But it is very difficult for me to carry the life anymore, to clean your bodies, because you have poison me. You are poisoning energetically your bodies as well. You eat meat, vaccines, that connected to your energy bodies. This all pollute me as well. Soon I will leave you. , said that soul of the water.

I remember of Vanga prophecy that bees are angel creatures. And when they and the water disappeared very soon the world will reach its end. Having in mind the last universal fair that i was on we don't have more time.

I have been participated on three universal fairs until now. They are not called regulary but incidently, when there have to decide very important question, connected with planetarian cataclysmus, positioning of the eskadrils or breaking the lows of the universal harmony. Surprisingly for me but on the last universal fair it is discussed the future of the Earth and entering in the 4th dimation. The high teachers from every dimation has right to vote. On every forum they are invited enlightened people like me, to hear and then to infiltrate in the astral level to their planets the universal will. It is not possible every time, because in critical breaking the balance of the planet , which is also a living creature, it can take autonom desicion like urgent transformation. It is kept the right for free choice of the inhabitants, only when it is not broken the harmony of the planet.

The voting was 123:89 in fair of destroying the humanity. Before that they take representative sample of the mental energy, put it in something like avatar and it goes on the court bench. It answered ominous frankly as it has been injected with the serum of the truth.

They asked:

- What was missing that you poison the sweet water and the oceans?

- Money

- And now with it can you repair what you have done?

- silence

- And what did you do with the plants, why you cut the lungs of the planet?

- For paper that we make money.

- Can you clean the air with it ?

- silence again
- What have you done with the air that we collect milliards of years atom by atom ?
- We pollute it but we collect..money.
- Can you breathe with it ?
- silence
- What have you done with the animals?
- We killed them, eat them and covered with them, for fun or to feed our ego.

The conviction was the following: Before transformation every sin against the harmony should be paid. It will be written in the akasha and which hunter has killed an animal without a need for survival will receive a heart attack. You cutt off a tree or use products of it , and you did not plant another - you receive a stroke. After another breaking of this low even in new incarnation - deleting the whole soul in the krioplazmas of Sirius.

CHAPTER 5

The witches of Ariman

The Akasha writings are informational field for the past, presence and future of the Humanity. It is the living brain, the memory of God. To there not prepared and not tested morally beings are not admit. Let imagine for a moment that our sky files, how they are also called and open. If we have such opportunity we could not be tempted to start mass re write our destiny. Than the chaos will be emormous. Many prophets in our country said that they read from the Akasha writings as they see the past or the future. But they lie because they have access only to the hologram proection where nothing can be read. The healers tell that they heal with herbs, bioenergy and spells but they also lie a little bit.

After i have stabilized in Troyan i went to tour around Bulgaria and tell about my sky dedication. It was interesting for me to see also other people with paranormal abilities. I was surprised to hear that for the energetical practises i command, here on Earth it has diplomas with levels. One of it is the method - reiki, an ancient art for using the fine energies, coming from the Cosmos. I went to reiki master, who when saw my power said that i could bearly addeven in the third level and gave it to me with pure heart. Then i myself become reiki master i went the brotherhood of the diplomed energy teraphefts. I soon cruched with the quacking and sham. The reiki association is lead from a woman that unfortunately is with poor moral. On one seminar on the Black see for stucking clients and kursists so called grand master Katia, as she is titled, went through all the written and non written law of the universe. And at the end her ego reached to there to sit in front of me with some other masters and said, 'Come on my children, pull from one card to see what luck have you got'. Her tone was very rude. We were clear like a day that she again wanted to show off in front of the whole audience how powerful is she and what group of mags has she. My glass of cosmical patience has over. I told her that my luck is given from the above and my cosmical abilities from God and the spiritual teachers. So nor she no who ever can put on doubt the god's promise, upon which will i am still in that body, not talk about her funny cards. The Psycho vampire here showed her real face. She crossed eyebrows and stuck in my neck her power energy spear. Of course this is not visible for the simple eye but the pain is real. I absorbed the attack and after two minutes working with her negative wave i have put it back to the source with a hundred more strong power. The grand master fall on the floor not alive not death. Two days her group could not bring her on foot with different mantras and infusion of a bioenergy. After she came up she whispered death threats that hardly could impress me having in mind my large experience with black mags, reptiles on Earth and up in the dimensions. I could be accused in unhumanic behaviour and lack of patience, but sometimes some people deserve such lesson.

In that period happened that i faced with the wroce face of the heirs of baba Vanga. Unfortunately their main ruling strength were also the malice, envy, the thirst for revenge, blood and money. In that case i will tell the following case. Before one year in my office came a woman from Blagoevgrad. As she cooked at home she saw me to give interview on television, and something told her i could help her. She was not feeling well since she go to the clairvoyant Rumi. I told her that i have known such people and i know very well how they 'help' to people.

When the normal people sleep they wake up and starting to make magics for death. Aroud 3-4 o'clock after midnight is their working time. Then the aurical defence of the human is very weak to outside impacts, or in other words magics. In the little hours of the night our biofield is not that active and our whole monadic being is switched to other space incarnations. On our Earth one person can have 20 incarnations or its spirit. But what in fact are doing this look like harmless witches? They found a wealthy man and make him a magic for death. Then they call him and said that by accidence they found frightened signals in his biofield. There is another variant. Their college has taken the money, made the speel against the person, but as they told they are very conscientious they warn him that he is in deathly danger. Usually the order comes from business partner or family member. The occult racketeering starts from 5 000 leva and reaches to 30-40 000 leva. ‚If you want your child die you can save the money‘ are the words that convince even the biggest skepsist to give the money. And these grand ladies of the occult, the third eye and astrology can bring to death even an elephant, because instead of hearts in their bodies there are radio cassettes full of snakes, lizards, and puss bile. Every divine soul once tried from this cocktail want to disappear from its body.

The people pay as their children are most vulnerable. The worse thing is that sometimes the magical rituals can not be turned back if it is not the kid the parent is suffering and can die, although it ihas been paid. The end of one ritual for death has amny names - a cancer, tumor, heart attack or automobile accident. But these are not prophets, astrlgists or healers. These are animals in human skin , and later i found their name - reptiles. Not incidently most of their names started with letter ‚R‘. One of the astrlogist found that and put a pseudonim with letter ‚A‘. Those creatures are one letter above us in the evolution. They can read thoughts - the telepathy, awake hypnosis, dematerialization.

With those qualities they often come in front of people as astrologists, prophets and healers. And those who are not working in this field climb very fast on the ladder of politics to our country and worldwide.

Our ,prophets' very well are hidden in the hologramic illusion that is above the whole planet. This is the perfect camouflage for them in our easy 3d world. 4 and 5 dimensional spaces can not be deceived that easy because of the many sensitive angles that have. I go around whole country and then i go to the capital of Sofia. I kn my first steps on the city the ladies with ,R' in names liked me and wanted to have me as their college. They suggest me to go together in television in occult broadcast. Before i came to my first efir they surrounded me and started to instruct me.

- After you came in front of the came through away black hooks in whole country through the radio efir. And pull - suck.

- How can i do this? said i. I came to Erth with mission of the light and love, what are you talking people?

- We will give you one love to you you will almost shine. Are you with us or against us. If not you another will take the energy and the luck from the people. They are donors of the darkness, but it is better for us to feed with thier vitality and live forever, said to me the amazon kohort of Satanail Reptilian.

I took part only in one broadcast and i talked only what was dictated to me from the above, for the love, the harmony among people, for the indigo children and their mission. From then i did not show in front of camera with this ,creatures'. But they were not surprised by my refusal. Every night these predators has covered with sheep skins with a little make up they drink people's love make predictions by human's voice, aura, coffee, taro cards and stars.

Not surprisingly the woman from Blagoevgrad called me after she has meet one of the grand ladies of local prophets. The servant of the dark has put to the woman black hooks like a doll on a threads and like a gigantic mosquito suck a vitality from her. And the woman was wondering why instead of getting better she was getting worse. First she lost her job. She thought this happened because of bad luck, but the professional troubles were coincidence of the impact in her energetic. The woman became isolated by the world because of panic attacks. The doctors diagnosed it like a social phobia. It has followed a depression and try to suicide. Then she was at home and surprisingly saw me Deian Kolev on the television. My name stuck in her head like a survival boat. 'I dropped your name in google, found your site auracamera.bg and i'm here' said the woman from Southwestern Bulgaria. I diagnose her aura with my equipment. She has become very tiny. She has several holes in the biofield, that has become on spots. Our shield against energy attack who is build on top of the aura was missing. The colour of the aura was very dark green and grey. Although it was shadowed the green is with high energetic potential for healing. This is what has annoyed the reptile in human image. First the light is from the high spectrum of spirituality, something that it never can not have. And second the high emotional and psychical energy is a delicacy for the vibrating on low frequency beings. They rarely consume it raw. First they 'boil' it and transform the vibrational wave to the frequency of the deep fear and desperate. With other words they transform person to be unhappy then suck the vitality.

The 'clairvoyant' has hit the woman with two hooks in her back. The first is in one very fine energetic body known as the sengri point of the naguals, which is our connection with other parallel dimensions. The second was in her third chakra - the sun split, from where she sucks the boiled vitality from a distance. Miss 'R' has break the connections of my patient with the divine source and the star spirit from where it can come universal help. Then she has blocked her third eye - the sixth chakra, and the cosmic shield the seventh chakra, who defend us by interference has been cut off. At the end her root chakra the first chakra has been also cut off with ritual which is our bond to the mother nature.

,I gave her 2500 leva. She promised me to find my true love. She took the money and i started to become weak and to vomit' explain the woman. Despite the suffer she has not decline to search for the right man for her. But the Heaven that the witch promised goes directly to Hell. I release her from the system of central stealing of energy. I did corrections - harmonized the chakras, i dropped a healing ray from the cosmos, after i diagnosed again her aura. The check shows that only for 30 minutes the woman has received back 30 percent of her vital capacity- her aura has become healthy with a grass green colour. The woman feel herself the betterness and then she saw it on the monitor of Aura camera. It clearly shows the circle around her body, shining on some places with divine white light that i infiltrated.

On her question how i did the miracle, I answered:

,Everything is because of the love. When we change the direction and the new has come to our thoughts and feelings the whole world around us become new. You can make it also. If you increase the resonans of your inner spiral even with one circle, your whole life will take a new direction. ,

One woman from Pleven did not have an aura. I did not see such a miracle. A living death. The only graphic that has moved on the monitor was the one for the emotionality. I made a photo of myself to see whether the aparat is broken or something but mine was ok. It happend that she is one of the miliion prisoners in the underground world of Ariman. According to my atlant's memories he is powerful evil spirit come from another world and survived after several cataclizmus on Earth.

I have saw its sucricifuces when we go underground in Svishtov with my group to its throne. During we circulate between halls that like a maze entered one in another, i freed some souls. But it can be saved only the one who is ready to consciuos itself. Otherwise again it is searching the power of the dark side and it's captured. Around 24 poeple i have pulled out there to that moment. It is a big responsibility. It is not happening as some guru from near and away talked. They promised ,Come on a seminar, give a thousand leva and i will show you the path to the light.' Every case is individual as the soul is kept different ways.

We sign a contract with the dark side or with the light side, the contact is real and its written somewhere on the sky and it is inevitable. The dark side has big power to transform our physical reality. People signing contracts with it while we are taking a bath or while we rest in front of the television. How we make that? For example we sit and emitate thought-forms in the empty space - ,i want to win 100 000 leva', ,Until the end of the year i must have an apartment', ,This silver BMW i want it so much that i will kill for it'. Power, money, properties - the light side is taki part only if the cause is noble. But that happend extremely rare. And from where the goods will come, of course from the dark side. In this moment it sneak in the subconscious and has become a trade that the person can no longer control. It asks the free will of the soul - , What will you loose for the sake of you wish?'. Because in nature there's nothing as a gift - one energy is transformed to another to make the balance. You want more moeny, there's no problem but you will loose your health. The bioenergy which the creator has given to create your kidney will be disintegrate and will transform into money. It is always that the dark side is taking something, whether health, a near relative, family happiness - this is a low. It exists option to transfer luck and money from a past or a future life. We have to know that the carmic rest is lost and in next life we will live miserable. And then we will be again, even we won't realize it. I am observing compressing of the karma lately, and its paid in this life as it is going to happen a big transformation on the planet.

Ariman is also hurrying to compress as many souls as it can. He is pulling the individual undervoweled like a fish to a hook. But what the dark side want the most is called a spiritual devastation. Going under the individual is opening its fine bodies and the dark side suck the love and at the end it can be reached to deleting the soul. By its formation the universe has give an energy as it gives a small nuclear reactor for a year. After it is devastated it is gone nearly the same quantity of energy that feed the power of Ariman.

At one of my last cases one folk singer, very famous, i wont tell her name, without knowing has called the dark side. During our seances we saw that she has thought often how she will become famous and will have a lot of money. That thought did not give her peace. After i turned her back in this incarnation she found surprisingly how in one moment a question has sneaked - ,what i you ready to give?'. After all the dark side has been given her with career but now she has a breast cancer. This is a classical sell of soul, described in ,Faust'. Even in the work of Giote to have a fiction in its essence there's a big doze of true, and he captured the informaton from the fine worlds.

The escape of a sold soul is very difficult, almost impossible. In it mineral kingdom is going under with minimum 4 people to guide. The action goes like a special operation - with cloaking, intelligence, deviate the attention movements. It should action very quickly and organized. When i cam under to help the flk singer, i found her under half transperant matery. The hooked souls are placed in halls, whole covered with thin needles. They breath, and eat on the suface without suspicion that htier vitality impulse is send under to other creatures. I still don't have a ready answer who are they. I know who is on top of their chain, but his servents are many. I feel that htis is the darkness itself, reptiles or htonical underground creatures, for which is told in the ancient myths from Europe to Asia, America to Africa. I will add here that the phenomenon holographic illusion and steal of vitality i have registered before the movie Matrix. There's nothing coincidental in the big exploitation of the theme, as an information from the fine world has reached as more often in our dimension. The people of art - painters, writers are more sensitive for the impulses of the invisible world and without knowing they bring this in its creations. As like Elin Pelin send its character Ian Bibiyan on the moon with a rocket, years before the americans to make the first flight to Earth's natural satellite.

We have commented the theme with many clairvoyants. They told me what they see from the dark side, and then i tell them my visions for the Light side. But the most important is that in the beginning they confirmed me the existing of the throne the halls, that to confess i rarely go. Many of the clairvoyants clearly realized for which part are they working for but they can not escape because from underworld they take their power to see through the time and to make spells.

The folk singer we released from the portal that is in the Black sea. On the bottom of the darkness there was a light from which we go to the other side. But we didn't go to our time space and before that we jumped to a place which is one level above ours, as vibration. We called it 'the heaven field' and the feeling that you have when you step of the sky meadow is bliss. Many of the enlightened people as many people that has gone through a clinical death has been on this place. This vision world looks like heaven - there is a meadow with bright green grass, which no one mortal is seen. The colourful carpet covered with flowers and herbs is climbed to a peak divided on two from a river with siver clean water. On its one shore is seen hundreds of men in white clothes, and on the other - women. The most lonely and desparate souls go to the water at night, normally during a dream to find there a partner in life.

After we came there we feel regeneration and purifying but you can not stay there long. It is very beautiful but does not bring a nirvana forgetfulness. The place give power to human and lead it to go again to its life on Earth, full with positivenss and faith in itself.

From the meadow it can be done a flight directly to cosmos or to go back in your bodies on Earthh as we did.

I had one friend , fan of Levski footbal team, who suffers from a tumor in the brain. In his last days of life he often goes to the heavenly meadow. He had become convinced in many things that only i could see. He did an automobile crush. The boy belonged to the light that wanted to take him. I prayed for not happen now as i see he is not ready. With the right pray a human can prayed many things for its own or for a near person. In that way i could prolong its life with 3 years. The ,trade‘ went successfully and from the above have been agreed to give him more time. In his last days in Pirogov hospital , when he opened for the invisible world, he say to near relatives ,Say to Didko that he was right for everything‘. They asked him what he have in mind. He only smiled and said ,One day you will find yourself‘ and he flight.

A death and enlightenment with Ayahuaska

Yes, only the Death give full healing and enlightenment. There is one more way that can lead us to the End in full consciousness without having to die physically. It is called Ayahuaska. The word come from the language of inka tribe Kechua, it means ‚lian of the spirit‘. From the flowers and the roots of the liana banisteriopsis caapi, it is made a bitter drink. For many tribes that live in the jungle of Amazonia, the Ayahuaska is their fundament of the religion. With its help the shamans went to extaz and reach the doors of upper and lower worlds. During the trans the soul leave the body to go up in the sky or to go down under the ground. Then with Ayahuaska a human knows the reasons and consiquances of a heavy illness, a live problem or a dramatic event, that can not find an answer in the reality. The weird condition that the one drink Ayahuaska is gone is the one that shows it his path, mission and the source of its cosmical powers. The experience that decoction give is always equal to the ‚Sacrum‘ - sacrifice. When the liquid is drunk the body started to clear through vomiting, variations of a body temperature and kosmatis spazms. With me happend so called near death experience, that stays in the base of the insight. The ritual with Ayahuaska is not harmless, because exept the virtual death, when overdosed in weak organizum there is the opportunity a human to die without understand even what is happening.

Having all this in mind i climbed in a house up in the mountains. A whole day i boiled the roots. At the end i receive a liquid small as a coffee cup, full with dark green substance. I drunk it and wait. After half an hour i felt very exousted. As if i have swum an hour without stopping in the see. The world around me started to circulated and i lie. My blood started to boil and the whole bioplazma that is not hold on a tissue started to go outside my body as some command. For 4 hours i went to the toilet around 20 times - absolute purifying on a physical level. On the 21st time i fainted outside on the meadow. A 2 metres tall shadow stay to me, but do nothing, it only waited. I don't know what time i sit like that but after i was awoken i heard a wolf wailing. I thought that to survive i need to catch him, to kill him and my spirit to merge with his. I started to chase him. I run about 5 minutes in the forest. In that moment Ayahuska give me another vision and i saw myself in a white sphere. In it it can be felt the rhythm of the Earth, how ill is she and at the same time how happy is that we that will help her to survive are many, to enter in the 4 dimension and to feed with love and light. This is what i lived that day.

Although it is forbidden to take the drink often, i prepared one more bigger portion for the second night. I divided into three parts, then i drink it thirsty for knowledge between hour and a half. After i drunk the last again started the weird feelings which i try to describe. I was go out in the yard when i feel very heavy in my back. I exploded in wheezings and vomiting. I dropped into a large black channel. I could not breathe nor scream. I thought this is the end i am going. For not to fall i reached one tree. It has shaken from inside, then a deep explosion, that blast the tree's trunk as it was in my hands. I fall with eyes to the sky and from the hit in the back i breathe a little. From the Swam constellation there were ordered a warriors. The sky has lightened in lazur tones, electric yellow, fire red, plasma blue. In the colours as it has been hidden an image that i should order myself. I moved some clouds, and from the whole shining puzzle it came up the image of a strong man. In my ears started to thunder its name Pakal Votan. Till then i have never heard for the existing of such man. I expected to see Oziris, Sirius, Egypt, the priests of Tauoio, the things i have meet in my astral travels. And now i was told something that have nothing in common with what i already knew. The visions have changed one by another. Again it was death's turn. The black channel covered me again. A deep cough came. I tried to breathe an air in one hundred of the second, as i continue to live. Again i fall on the ground. I see a large shining snake is coming with opened mouth to me. I used my knowleges for energetic fights, i hit her, but she turns into 50 small snakes. They were ordered for new attack. There were no escape they go through me and made me on a holes. But i calmed down at least. Than i did not know that this way it is vizualized the earth energy Kundalini and despite of take it i fight with it.

A new portion of fears swam in the air. This time were crocodiles. On the earth from one of my siht there came up chakals, and on the other owls. Going from low to high reality hit me again to the light. I heard the folowing words : ,Remember the tree, Venus and the large hole will openend in the galaxy. It was forthcoming of the consciousness of the people. Matery and antimatery will divide. The cataclyzmus will be many. The way of the heart and intuition is the most right. The logic is death. Open your heart, give all from your brain with love and will be given back hundreds of times from the universe.'

And again nightmares. For about 4 hours i should go outside from the trans situation. I stayed whole 8 hours because i overdozed Ayahuaska. At sunrise i came up to myself. I checked what the symbols that i saw means that i saw as visions. Pokal Votan is the king of mayans, and the tree that came from his stomach, symbolized the tree of life.

In ancient times in mayan's civilization it has opened a hole in the galaxy and from 13 dimention came their highest priests. Soon i expect e new opening of the dimentions. That is also what mayan calender is talking about. It is deeply honest - it ends on 21.12.2012.

CHAPTER 6

2012 - reloading the Matrix

According to the mayans the human civilization is developed on cycles from 26 000 years. The galaxy Milky way is moved by spiral orbit around the Great central sun. Earth along with the humanity is at the end of the 26 000 year old cycle of the cosmic system Earth-Sun-Pleiades. It has to end on 21 december 2012. In 2013 is starting the next cycle for the Solar system from 26 000 years. Before that the Earth will enter in step of spiritual development, because in the Universe the physical and spiritual processes walk along together. This is an objective reality, that has still not realised.

In particular time from the centre of the galaxy will be radiated a synchronized ray, that will raise the elektromagnetic, mental and spiritual vibration on the earth, and from there human's as well.

Let's look more closely the mayan calendar. They have measured the time with two calendars. The first one is Colkin - a sacred ritual calendar contained by 260 days. The second one Haab - a sun calendar is according to the nowadays Gregorian calendar.

Main measure for the two systems is kin that means day. Twenty kins make one uinal or month, and 18 uinals make one tun that is a year. There was also a Katun which makes 20 tuns, and baktun which contain 20 katuns.

The beginning of the 'Great cycle' of mayans is between 6 and 13 august 3113 before Christ. In the chronology of the mayans that date is written 1.3.0.0.0. And the same is the date 21.12.2012. This cycle from 5125 years is divided into 13 equal periods from around 400 years. Such big period from 394 years is called baktun. We are now in the last 13th baktun. The year of mayans begins on 23. December in the day of the winter solstic, that their astronoms have well know. Amazing fact is that the ancient mayans could see very precisely the winter solstice far away in th future is a fact that can not be interpret by the scientists. ,The Long chronologically‘ of the mayans as it called the sun calendar is very precise. It is near to the idea for digital counting with which all computers work today. Apart that Colkin is also known as an informational matrix describing the connction between several constellations, between Pleides and Venus. The sacred tree which is described to came from the stomach of Pokal Votan give horoskopes map of the Milky way according to the Eart on 21.12.2012. The umbilical cord from the picture is crossed right on the Sagitarius constallation equal to the galactic equator on the Milky way. There there’s a hole, a cloud star dust, that has known to the ancient astronomes. They believe that there’s a hole a portal to another world, the Heart of the sky. From that place the mayans predicted that will come the ray of the change, that is coincides to the 13th baktun to the Fifth sun.

In this connction the russion astrononaut Georgii Grechko is skeptical that a blood civilization like the mayans, pulling out human’s hearts for sacrifices, have such hich intelect to create such incredibly sharp calendar. Grechko thinks that the calendar has came from the cosmic creatures. Maybe they will came after 21-12-2012 whether to give us a new calendar or to punish us some way.

It may sounds fantastic but such vision i had during the ritual Ayahuaska, when i lived through the death.

A warriors coming from the sky, leading from the supreme ruler Pokal Votan. According to ancient mayan text, human civilization is visualized as Fifth sun. Vatan is also the new sun. Vatan will come to change the humanity. The end of the Fifth sun will be a time for releasing the soul from the physical matter during a cosmic awakening, result by a divine plan. The humanity will be a witness of the rise of the Sixth sun- the new consciousness. The change apart from the chronological has clear astronomical parameters - when the Earth goes in such condition that the change will be possible. The ray will come from still not visible object- hole placed in the centre of the Galaxy. It will reload our Fifth sun to the Sixth sun, which will transfer new rays to the Earth.

For information the path of the sun is equal to the Sacred tree of the mayans - the central sun of the Milky way - on 3.December 755 year. Then the event happened before the date of the winter solstice. Now on 21.12.2012 the earth axis will be in the right direction, to make the synchronization coming from the centre of the galaxy. What will be this event?

What I was told from the invisible world is that will have a photon stream and who is not with pure energetic system - aura, meridians and chakras, will start to be ill emotionally. The reason is that the fine structure of our bodies, will be not in the condition to transfer the intense lighting wave. And it will bring big electromagnetic charge, an enormous dose of information about the new evolutionary way of the humanity. For that reason we have to be ready, to be possible the impulses to penetrate in our DNA. Otherwise it will start overflow. As it is like the country to expect intense snow melting in the spring and not clear the rivers. It is the same with the body and energetic of the human that we must put in order until then. If there are cataclysmus like earthquakes, hurricanes, or increasing the sun activity, they will happen several years after the quantum reloading of the planet.

Now we don't only near the end of the Big cycle, and we are on the final of the whole 26 000 years evolutionary cycle. If we turned back to this 26 000 years cycle we will go to the epoch of the predecessor of the homo sapiens. Now it will be the beginning of something that will be such perfect that according to it after 26 000 years will look as cromanians as well. It won't happen over a night of course.

I want to explain the precession of the earth axis which is also well known to mayans. Under this term is hidden the circulating of the earth axis itself, as a result of it it happens one scrambled circulating of the whole planet around the sun for the period of movement around 25 800 years. Is this coincidental? The angle of the earth's axis and the precession according to the centre of the galaxy are of big importance for the process of synchronizing. But after the world enter in 2011 all the tabus has gone...

How i corrected the earth's axis ?

In 2004 year i receive an order to correct the earth's axis. Yes it can be regulated with codes. For that purpose i went to Melnik. In the smallest town of Bulgaria there's a portal for correcting the precession. Where exactly is the place i can not tell, but if the Rils mountain is the most powerful energetic centre to fly above, Melnik is for the opposite direction. Until now i have been participating in 2 missions like this. The first one i received after a deadly earthquake. It happend because of military nuclear experiments on big depth, the lead to bearily visible shake of the planet and displace the earth's axis. Then the keepers of the harmony wanted to be entered codes for repair. At the end of 2009 year there was a message for my second mission. It sounds fantastic but what i have seen i will tell you and those who have senses will know it's true. I travelled to the core of the Earth in something like a capsule and was very close to the core. Altogether we were 12 people that were in the hall for corrections from all over the world. In front of everyone was placed a unique technological portal from plazma and crystals. In entering we entered a unique planetarian code in it, that everyone has after its activation. THE cifre looks like a digits placed like a pyramid. On the first row there are 4 digits, on the seocnd 5 digits, on the third 6 digits and so on up to 9th row which is gathering 12 digits. I saw from my right site a russian very short with devily blue eyes. Although it is forbidden the communication between the keepers of the codes the dwarf said something like ,How it is going bratushka?' I only nodded. From my left site there was a black man, after that there were a man that looks like a german. From the side of the ,bratushka' i saw a wman which nationality i can not tell. The people in rest of the hall can be bearily seen because of grey-green haze that was spread all over.

The visibility once was clear and once cloudy as the situation on a high mountain peak, that changes every second.

I made everything that I have been instructed for and leave. In next weeks hit two earthquakes, one on the Balkans, but very weak. But the second on Haiti island was devastating. What was the purpose of this mission I was not told. If we make the earthquake or somehow we directed its power to the right direction I still don't know. And during the quake in Chili, from NASA realised that the earth's axis is moved. If this is not the purpose? The information that I was given for this question from the higher worlds is very unclear and not enough. The main is that our planet must have been prepared for the future change. The algorithm is following : with every entering of codes on the earth it happen earthquakes, that I called coded quakes. The mission is the angle of circulating the earth to be the right one for to the planet could be reloaded from the central sun. Now the life on Earth is ruled by Pleiades. Soon the role will be taken by Sirius. But when exactly it is still unknown. It can be after 100 or 1000 years but Sirius now also loaded our sun invisibly with divine light and it is directing to the planet.

If we should do a prediction many more after 2012 year and before 2024 year, cosmical and earth factors will uncover the false hologram that keep keyed the life on the planet. In the moment we incarnate on Earth to know the love and harmony between body, soul and spirit. This is precious. Instead of that it happened that the cosmical educational program is changed. And the lessons that will be learned has delayed for next and next incarnations. But after the mantle around the planet is cracked will come a radiant rays of light which will bring the whole truth about the human, the Cosmos and the Universe. Some individuals will start to see other dimensions easily. That is because it is not right that after 2012 the Earth will come only to 4th dimensional level, because in front of us will discover a multidimensional world, that will bring back the broken connection between the human and the Cosmos. This won't happen for a night, but it is a process that will start there, and by its end neither the human nor the planet will be the same.

Gradually we will find the hidden truth that the Earth is a gigantic galaxy portal that is not used at the moment. After it is activated with it we will open our senses for the messages of the higher worlds - dimensions. Then we will be convinced that the shortest way from point A to point B is not the straight line but an interdimensional ray. Then we will travel across the worlds, everyone could see the escadrilles around the planet, lizard creatures around us, the aura that defends us are absolute real things.

We will also see the creatures and the ships under the sea. We will make ways to the world of the dead. We will go to there for knowledge and then we will be back full of optimism like we were on an exotic travel.

We will find ourselves that Christ is a symbol of consciousness, an evolution of the human thoughts, but there has been such a man. In it it entered another being, a star spirit like mine from Sirius. The Christian religion as a whole has transformed into a dogmatic system. Unfortunately when the sky beings have left the planet, it happens that they re-write their messages. That is what happens to Christianity, also Islam, the same happens with White Brotherhood after its teacher Petar Dunov has left. Same like Jesus from Nazareth, Beinsa Duno from village Hadarch in Varna is highly adept. In different periods of time they come along with the light, and materialize on Earth, to raise the spiritual vibration of the whole humanity.

CHAPTER 7

The rebellion of the indigo

The key for the survival of Bulgaria is hidden in ourselves. And especially in the children with extraordinary gifts - indigo. From 12 years i cross over the country and search for talents which are not conscoius yet to teach them. Before the beginnig of the new millenium the high simbiots from Sirius said that the humanity must open its hearts and mind for the forthcoming childre of the Sixth sun. This is the new Sixth shining race, called indigo. Then it was dropped the last stage of my mission. When i travellld to the star i saw a laboratory. It was enormous 5 level crystal hall that has different energies in every 15 minutes- yellow, green, orange, blue. From all this shining chromatical lake came androgene human. The colours has washed over to its contures leaving a white colour and at the edge of the aura has a purple shining.

Many scientists, prophets and ezoterics claim that something will happen in 2012. They said that after this date the Earth will no longer be the same - the conditions of life and the people themselves will be changed dramatically. All comment and waiting with crossed hands a meteor from the cosmos or a global warming to start the most apocalyptic scenarious. ,It should not only talk but action' it was told o me from the above. Then it has came the last stage of my teaching - find more indigo people all around and make them realize themselves. That was the meaning of the lake they showed me. In the colour of the aura is hidden the key for salvation of Bulgaria and the correct transformation of the whole world.

I go around the country for 12 years, searching for indigo beings to teach them. My equipment, 'Aura camera' take its role. The Russian-American equipment visualized the aura with mistakes. This apparatus is useful to convince the people that not everything is a legend or a myth. It makes graphics about the colour of the aura, the ratio between in and out energies, the level of the biofield, the condition of the chakras, of balance mind-body-spirit. The biggest value of the aura camera is that it shows this that philosophers, religious leaders, and enlightened beings are repeating from years - beyond the bunch of skin, bones and muscles, in human is hidden whole universe. This is the proof which is needed to people with low level of evolution, because the god's indigo people know about the invisible world and that is how they are born. But no one believe them. The aura of the indigo children is shining in purple, lavender and white colours. The colours correspond to the high vibrational level they have. Between 2012 and 2024 years they will help to adapt the humanity more painlessly to the planetary transition - the opening of the human consciousness. This will be done by the new indigo generation that because of its high energetic is controlling not 7 but 13 chakras, and is in continuous connection with the universal resonances. When the day X come we will guess it after the big energetic crash. Through my offices has come tens of children with indigo-lavender colours of the aura. Most of them in emotional situation can shut the electricity only with the power of their minds. Psychokinetic abilities of a human are really large, And crash in the systems of our civilization is a technique that can be trained. If a big group for example has connect to the power of its spirit from the above can really break the whole system - internet, electricity, communication. The satellite in the earth's orbit will also will be out of control.

Many people on a key positions in the official and nonofficial power realise that the planet is on a new level of its development. They are not happy about it as it is a threat of their positions and wealth. Every revolution goes to the changing the layers upside down , and those who are on top now will be on the bottom of the social pyramid. And the spiritual people which are with inner spiritual vibration, but at the moment are in the mud will become priests of the humanity, its saviours.

It is fake the opinion that the indigo children which are with the syndrom of deficite of the attention should be given pills. The deception comes from the keeper of the old order, which are scared of the new and defend cruelly their old order. It is not a secret that on Earth there are pupeteers in shadow which are voting for keeping the old. They have turned the paradigma of values upside down. The twoface society is go to there that if we kill a person on the street this si a crime but if we start killing it slowly with GMO foods, vaccinate, colorants and flavors this will be a high value they called business.

The lies in front of the indigo childer do not go. They have such a detector for lies in them and when they feel insincerity in paret and society they closed in themselves deeply, and isolated from the other world. Such world is not part of their inner peaceful nature, and there's a risk to change them.

Because of that reason we talk about purely different indigi-ideology. It is not compatible to the hypocrisy in the moral of social and religious normas. They said ,do not commit adultery' but the highest priests of the religion are pedofils.

The canons are saying ,the money is sin' but without money we are not let in the temple of the god. They take money even for the confession, but not the human in cassock give the forgiveness but the sky.

The high clerk has surrounded by palaces of gold and precious stones, and its herd is left in the forrest among wolves- sectas, foreign teachings, black mags from near and far. ,Have mercy‘ they teach us, and at the same time they do not give money for the orphans, and social weak people. The people indigo are harmful for all of them for one main reason. The representatives of the Sixth race are accused in atheism, because they know that god is not in the church, not even in the candles from which some people are making miliards evro. God is in the temple of our hearts, and in the harmonical balance of the trinity - goodness and love in the thoughts, goodness and love in the feelings and goodness and love in actions. That is what used to teach us the last divined being came on the Earth - Peter Dunov.

We do not have to mislead ourselves - it is thrown away money and passion to stay the old order. In the moment i see that is build a false egregor image of the ,civilization that has come beyond its time‘. That this is not empire of the evil, but a swing for high moral and untouchable human civilization. And it will be destroyed in the moment we let the barbarian tribes of indigo people near. The truth is far more different. The world we live in is circled by malice, hate, hatred and incest in the name of the Ego and the Mamon of money. The social prosperity and social image are raised in cult, and only the sin open the doors for the material Heaven.

The human is lowered to rabbit level - go to work but does not feel happy, to fit in the picture. How is that happening? First we switch a program for self destroyal, that is like a computer softuer for pictures. We choose the button ,cut‘ and cut off the connction with the spiritual world. We cut all our sharp angles that are hidden our dreams, gifts, as along with them we are too big for the conventional ramk of the hypocracy and lie. Second we deny the vibrational resourse that the creator give us and we put in the empty fields pixels, a new one on lower levels. This act automatically decrease our spiritual electromagnetic vibration. We are no longer the being Cosmos, a continue of the Universum, but 2 dimensional portret picture, 100 to 50 pixels. In it the aura bearily shines, and at the end someone will put to nill the buttons ,colour', ,contast' and ,shining' and turn off the light in our lives. That is the perspective. This is the reason why it will have uprising of the indigo people, because the spiritual misery can not continue to endlessness. The universal power of the human is assembled in the corner and more soon it will be followed by a blast. This will be more spontaneous reaction than a planned sabotage against the system. May be it will become around 2012 or few years after that then will be released the plan for the world parliament in shadow for a total control. I suppose that in one moment they will want the chips from our documents to be put in our bodies. Many indigo will want their freedom and will fight against the destroyed harmony in the world. They will make an energetic crush in the system and without electricity the chips can not be traced. To many of the people my words may sound like exotic conspiracy theory but the faces of the change are already in Bulgaria. No one mentioned the fact that in 2010 in our country there were series of rebellions on a indigo children. They are products of the new energy, which brings the indigo spirits, incarnated on the Earth. The transmutacy that from the above is said to me that is happening like a panfull feeling for justice and perfectly clear moral.

Children in Plovdiv school ,Pencho Slaveikov' raised agaist the director because he fired their favourite teacher. After the first lesson for the day the kids went in the yard and strted to thorough away eggs and bombs to the building. They insisted the director of the school to give back their young teacher. There were sent five police ekypes. The story there tells that the director fired the teacher as she was a thread for her position. On every level of he country there's such a witch hunt against the most bright and liked young minds in Bulgaria.

The revolution and the reforms is coded to the new generation shows the events in autumn same year. Students from all over the country made spontaneous protests because of the cut christmas break. Rebellions there were in Blagoevgrad, Pernik, Sofia, Sliven, Varna and other cities. The matrixed thinking blame the Democracy for the protests and throwing away bombs. The democracy as it has been written in the media has become to not expected freedom and the young take this as advantage. No one has see the fact that the possibility of free speach is since a decade. The social order has changed in 1989 year but why now the children go mass on the streets. The answer is because the indigo conscoiusness has reached critical mass and soon will be followed spiritual blast and jump in the evolution. Because of that reason the change in the fine layers of our dimention is already became visible with simple eye on the physizical reality.

A negative IN-digo

A month before the rebellions there was a bun of murders, done by young people. A boy from gara Lakatnik killed his grandmother. I was interested by the case. It seems that the boy was very intelligent, but for sometime he behave introvert, asocial and noncommunicative. Scanning with my abilities at the parainformational channels of his bodies, i felt that the 20 years old killer has transformed into a negative indigo because of the lack of love in the family. It is extremely important for the bioenergy of the sixth race and its absence is often fatal. At the beginnig of new 2011 year a student with good grades, killed his own mother. Coincidence or not but the 17 years old boy said that his mother does not love him and did not care about him. He decided to kill her and to stroke his little brother who become a witness of the crime.

The murder in Kurdjali is because of the phenomenon negative indigo. The transmutation that is said to me from the high worlds that become is a painful feeling for justice and clear crystal moral. Because we can not teach them in school don't lie, don't steal, love your relatives, and at the same time to watch the politicians on the tv and their relatives how they do the opposite. But the diffence in Sixth race is that it assimilate the sin and transforms it. That it was created by the creator who wanted to be sure that there will be a transition from materiality to spirituality, and not something else.

This situation is mass, but no one talks about it, even in world, what to say about Bulgaria. And it is dangerous because destroy these individuals , that has to do the transformation of the world from the materiality to spirituality, from 3rd to 4th and multidimensional space. This is the Antichrist and the Second coming for which claim the prophets in the bible. They we come for survival, but at the end they will destroy everything old. If we take a look at the word 'Indigo' it hides in it the warning of transforming the negative energy in leading. Every indigo child is born with positive energy to the magnisphere of the Earth. But because of lack of approach to them from the society they close in themselves. And if one system that did not give away energy outside to the law of the universal harmony has transformed into IN. The wheat seed is with IN energy. It gives it defence and strength to keep in it the potential, hologramic projection of the whole. The IAN polarity gives deployment, development, evolution. The stem which will grow on the surface from one seed is the IAN energy. The same law for balance of the energy is moving the human. We are 50% positive IAN energy, and 50% negative IN energy. This is like eye and tura of the coin - there is no bad side, both of them have formed the value. But if the negative polarity swallows the positive it opens a black hole in the micro cosmos of the human and he started to go back to its embryonal development. Then in its life comes the chaos, devastation and disharmony. The human started to go down because IN is pushing him subconsciously to hide in its seed. But this going back to the embryonal period and the spiritual envelope goes through the death inevitably. In that trap go the indigo children. They self isolated and keyed themselves, because they can't develop their divine IAN potential as the world around suppresses them. As a result they turned their polarity when they are young. The destroyed bioenergetical balance opened different diseases such as aggressions and rabies. The most often problems in healthy aspect that I observe is autism, deficit of attention, hyperactivity, polar distress, phobias, allergies. I want to mention that the children indigo can absorb many things by the surrounded world, and many of the symptoms of some diseases can be caused from that. They came to Earth with high levels of love, and angelic moral. When they feel the hostile environment, their instinct works and they close in themselves, how the seed is closed under the ground in the winter waiting for better times.

In the family that there is an indigo child i observe the following phenomenon. A mother suffers from a panic is stabile 5 years, but at the end of 2009 she receive a crisis. A month later the child develop also some fobia - a fear of windows without curtains. The indigo individual in the society can defeat, but at home in most of the ways is unprotected. It captures on an energetical level the harmful models of its parents, thinking that everything that is aroud it is a pure lazur. That's why the parents be careful, as the child is taking its emotions, deseases and fears.

The risks in front of the sixth race are really many, and without state politic we could not put up with the problem. Our country is face in front of a big danger - our young people from a positive indigo transformes into negative. They are confused and scared and don't know what are they on this Earth. They feel they are different but are not supported by its parents and teachers. And if they are not starting to control this high wisdom and feeling they became demonic beings. According to me the accident in disko ‚Amnesia‘ in the student's town in which group of students killed another student is caused by the phenomenon neative indigo. It should have indigo clubs for to prevent bad indigo-violet perspectives.

Otherwise the old order and negative society energy has pushed the sky prophets and they often end their lives as outsiders, alkoholics and narcos. They are never ready for this world. They came from the far galaxies of the divine love, but the earth with the whole antagonizm meet them as a stepmother and transform it in something ugly. They stay forever one grown seeds.

Monk from Plovdiv

At the end of 2009 year on my door knocked enormous 28years old man from Plovdiv, that was crying like a baby. His psychical condition was extremely weak - he was going to be transformed to negative indigo. He tells me that he can not sleep for about 3 years. He suffers from the fobia of the television charakter Monk to wash his hands in every 5 minutes. He went to several psyhiatrics and psychoanalatics but his condition was getting worse. After he sit in front of me he asked me whether the equipment that he needed to put his hand on, is washed with spirt, and i confirmed.

I started the aparat ,Aura camera' to diagnose him. The results on the monitor tells me that his weird emotional condition comes from the fact that he is from sixth race. And it is hiding many risks as i already mentioned. The aura of his body was shining with mild violet light but his seventh chakras were very distabilized. To feel in perfect form a human, its energetic centres has to be near the the ideal circle form like the lights of the traffic lights. And Monk's look like very disharmonical. In its worse condition was his Anahata - the heart chakra, that looks like a solar eclipse. What i mean? His fourth energetic centre looks like enormous green-grey spot, behind it it is hidden white light. This is a clear divine love, that can not be shown. The young man has so much hidden love, that looks like a 6th energy blok of AEC Kozlodui. And his reactor work on full power but there were no power lines to give this love to the world. It should be done an urgent harmonization of his chakras. I dropped from my universal channel harmony and light to Monk's body. After that i took the extra energy and pull it to cosmos. During this energoinformational exchange the curtains in the office has started to move. After 25 minutes the indigo person has calmed down. He said:

- A stone has dropped from my body. My consciousness and mind are clear now.

And before he leave he said:

- I feel so light i will almost fly.

I wanted after two-three days to call me for control the situation, as it was very difficult and if he has not did something he could be dead now. The second diagnoze with Aura camera showed his chakrs working like a swiss watch.

- I fall asleep last night for a first time. It has not happend to me for 1086 days, cried the Plovdiv Monk.

The healty sleep is a sure sign for good bioenergetical balance, but with that indigo it is forthcoming still more work. Baccuse i had to teach him how to control his high energy and to give the extra love from himself to Bulgaria, the world and the cosmos.

The main problem of the indigo people is that they have the highest cosmical levels of the consciousness and the spirit, because instead of 7 chakras they have 13. While in other people the high energetic chakras are missing and could be only a potential, in the indigo they are absolutely working. But this is not very happy situation, as it is like having a modern space ship but you a put to go through a ground ways.

But what shows my diagnoses with Aura camera all over the country? It seems that 70% from the bulgarians are focused more to the material world then to the spiritual. That's why they shine in the yellow-orange spectrum. The shining in red and orange are stuck in the mud of the earth passion and problems - how to feed their children, how to pay the water, electricity, morgage. And also form where to steal, what to invest, with which partner to be.

There is also higher auras, that surrounds people with indigo potential, that can be clearly shown or to be hidden. These are individuals with green, indigo, lavender, dark and light blue, violet and even in white shine of the aura. The white aura people like Christ are also indigo.

For that the term 'indigo' should not be taken literally, as an individual with this particular colour, as many foreign western specialists define it. Indigo child is emanation of high spirituality and energy, brings clear soul, crystal wisdom and has energy with extremely high wave of frequency.

My experiments with Aura camera show something else very important. There are indigo people with very clear crystal violet aura. They are developed intellectually on a high level, and have untraditional creative approach. They can teach and change the minds of the others with their mental vibration, they are independent and more sexual. There are also lavender crystals. This colour in their aura is for their artistic skills like the violets and the clearness of the whites. The pure and bright lavender colour shows that the ability for intuitive knowledge for the world is extremely high. These Bulgarians feel sincere love to the humanity and have very powerful connection with its divine source, they are led by the beauty and art. Big percentage of the auras that I have diagnosed and analyzed are mixed, but lately the violet colour is very often found in the auras of the youth. Their physical and spiritual part is a synthesis between the High will of the sky and the earth, where they are living creatures. The bond logically can be found in the aura because it is a symbiosis from the colour of the universe - violet blue and from the colour of the Earth amber yellow. In the children indigo it is created and interesting paradox that was missing before 20 -30 years. In it it is crushed the spiritual and the earth softer. But as we live in a material world the antagonism transformed the indigo in outsiders.

Crusified between the sky and the earth

In our daily routine we act according to our pragmatic energy centres. First, second and third chakras are responsible for the individual to survive. They move the ego, the sexuality, earning money, imposing the will with the power of the brain, the actions on the border of the moral and low and beyond. Indigo person is leading by its spiritual energetic centres - of the heart, the green chakra, of the intuition - blue violet, and the top chakra - white, with which it connected to the cosmos. For these people the old are said - they fly in cosmos and the wind is blowing them on a white horse. The last words are very correct as the aura of these people despite violet and lavender it is often white as well, filled with divine love. Their problem or discomfort comes from the too high vibrations of existing in our 3D reality. From the bioenergetically point of view, there is not such a problem - they are perfect. Most of the genius like Mozart, Da Vinci and Einstein become such thanks for their high energetic, which has gift them with high sensitivity to sense information (music, knowledge, mathematical formulas, visual images) from the higher worlds. For that reason many of the indigo children can talk to ghosts, have a prophets visions, they can move things with its thought, subconsciously they control the weather. But when they need to do something on an earth level, to control financials, to lie even noble, to go to competition for work and to win - here the indigo fail. And the reason is hidden in the fact that they can not switch the transmission from higher to lower vibrations. That is what break their connection with the society, that is not yet grown for communication with such high type of souls. Because indigo instead of taking-giving, instead of hating-loving, instead to obey on the order they break it. Imagely said they not fit in the picture.

According to the insight that has been given to me from my spiritual guides, the salvation for the indigo children is in one technic called PBP (switching of the bioenergetical energies). It will help them to adapt to the world, before it is ready for the change. Otherwise if now indigo beings say they are from Pleiades or Sirius society people can think they are crazy. And will put them a medical diagnosis. And if the society was more uncivilized they could be killed as witches, like such cases in Africa. The pills will do the same but slowly. Our civilization as many other aliens is moved still by the fear. From the beginning we have killed the different to survive. This is continue to happen under one or another form, despite the technical progress. Fear of change, of hunger, of poverty, from the social disapproval, the bad stuck every fibre of our bodies, and the indigo children should go beyond that. For that reason they hardly will go to direct confrontation with the fifth race, because they are here not to increase the fear but to delete it.

PBP is an elevator - the spiritual go under, the materialy oriented go upper. Beside the thechnic i teach the indigo children the following mental stage.

In this life the body is given to be used and not to walk on the clouds. When they are in spiritual environment let them to communicate on a higher level. On the street when they have to earn money, to survive let them to switch to lower energy vibration. Otherwise they will become outsiders and the fifth race will destroy them.

On the other side to the very low levels of vibration of the mind of the people from fifth race i need to say them to swith on the higher vibrational levels of the indigo. The economical crisis that the world have is good period for the lovers of money to feel their personal transformation. Because inspite of that physical reality there are powerful mechanisms that can help them to survive. If they open their mind for it.

Indigo waves

The terminus indigo is not correct as not all of the individuals with indigo auras are children any more. So let be understand as synonymous of indigo person or indigo being. That is my definition of indigo people:

- These are people which aura is shining in the indigo spectrum – white, lavender, violet. The chromatic wave structure of their bodies corresponds to the extreme mental and spiritual vibrations they have. It can be proved only with apparat as the „Aura camera“ or from a person with aurical vision with big resolution.
- Indigo individuals use 13 chakras bioenergetical system. By priority their vital matrix is loaded from their high energetical centers from 4th chakra and above. To realize their mission on earth they need to teach on the system PBP (written above).
- They bring with themselves the potential of old earth and star spirits with mission. Many came from the constellations and reincarnate. It is always has divine individuals but they were small part of the population. Before half a century happened something and the indigo starting to come on waves in geometrical progression. Today most of them are in India, China and of course Bulgaria.
- There are behavioral models for indigo. They come from the high developed right side of the brain and their powerful connection with the universal will, that connected them with their cosmic spirit. The creative approach in deciding the life casus is character for these people, as also the high moral making no compromises. For that reason if you communicate with such a child you feel like you talk to adult.

- For them are character many peculiarities in the behavior which the official medicine called autism, hyper activity, epilepsy. In 80% of the cases they include the following paranormal abilities: reading thoughts telepathy, moving things with the thought telekinesis, feel future events clairvoyant, communicate with spirits and energy beings from other dimensions – contacting.

Chronological borders of the waves, with which the indigo children come to the Earth are very conditional. There is no sharp border which stops birth of individuals with particular signs. They transform smoothly. The information I have gathered through empirical and contacting way I have established four waves. They show the different processes that happened in the invisible world.

In 1970 year in Bulgaria came the First indigo wave from high sensitive spiritual beings. Most of them are with dark blue auras. According to my researches in all the towns these people are more aggressive and offensive. They know their power. They have painful feeling for justice. But this is not an incident, as their mission is to make a path to the indigo with more fine structures and energetic that come after them.

Not coincidentally the world organization “Green peace” is established in 1971 year. Than in spiritual plan has been created conditions for giving a birth to ideas, individuals and organizations which are responsible for the global transformation of the earth thinking.

This is the time when grow the ideas of the teaching of the New epoch. They became popular in the 70s as a reaction that someone define as crush of the Christianity and Humanism. The world needed from a new spiritual and ethical vision about the future. The roots of the spiritual movement come from many sources: astrology, contacting, Hinduism, gnostical traditions, spiritualism, Daoism, theosophy and others. The purpose after all is evolution of the vibrations around us to higher the spirit, thoughts and our energy vibration – the aura. The way goes through the thing that God exists in all of us and around us and all religions are just different keys to that reality. The knowledge may present as a mountain to which peak are leading many spiritual paths. Some are easy, others – difficult but all are leading to the peak. In 70s the indigo dropped to the earth energy with which enlightened the hidden ways in the fake hologram matrix of the materialism. This lead to development of the medium practices, healing with bio energy, the use of herbs and homeopathy instead of pills, crystal therapy, astrology, meditation. With them we develop our ability for healing ourselves and the ones around us, the ability to use the psychical energy to reach a level of understanding the Universe and the Creation. The mission is when critically many people reached that stage of spiritual development to make a world transformation. It will impact physics, psychics and culture – all.

The Second wave has came in 1980 year. Its representatives are harmonic beings. They are far more sensitive, harmonic and loving creatures. Their aura shines in violet. Some called them the enlightened. These are the forthcoming of the crystal children. According to one astrological theory the core of the second wave in under the impact of Uranus. These individuals seems very deeply in themselves, very easy to be hurt. At some moment they are distracted by rhe information that come to them but this is only seemingly. Their right part of the brain very quickly compress and take off from the whole stream one thought which is most precious for a certain casus they have. The rest needed they find alone through connecting with universal informational field.

How I helped Berbatov?

In 2010 I realize that the star of Bulgarian football team Dimitar Berbatov is indigo from the second wave and that is why his career stuck. When all the medias of the Albion has criticized him and the local fans has sworned at him because he decline to play for the national team any more I was pleased from the biggest newspaper in Bulgaria – Standart to make him a meditative train program which they published. Then Mitko Berbatov release himself and started to make goals as on an electron game. Not to talk about 3 phenomenal goals against Liverpool, the one of them with a scissor (special football termin). Then he hit the record 5 goal in one play and write his name in the history of the English football. Followed some hetrics and in the beginning of 2011 he was on top of the rating of the goal masters.

But it was not always be like that. After he came to England on the media make impression how he is not like other footballers. “Sincere vision, looking down, rarely looking at the eyes. Easy hurt soul where every bad word resonates like crying Stradivari-ous. These were part of the describes of him. In Bulgaria he has no affinitet to prostitutes, or drinking at the discos like other colleges. The reproaches to him was he has no sport evil, he is very sensitive, when he is not in condition he does not make goals, never receive red cartons, do not run enough, all this chase him from Germany where he play a little. After he came to Great Britain all are wondering why Berbatov is not a as crazy as his college Wayne Rooney. And the answer is simple – because the indigo individuals are differently structured. In them the conventional earth logics does not work.

The indigo beings control high energetic, divine power and love with which they easy connects to the spiritual worlds, move things with their eyes and can stop the electricity only with its thought. But there problem is when they have to be aggressive on earth. The advices I give to Berbatov then within the media for the new football season 2010/2011 were connected to the technic PBP which help to individuals with such colour of the aura that they realized their potential on Earth.

1. To realize he is different. (indigo)
2. Outside the football his actions to be leaded by the high energetic centers of love, forgiveness and mercy, which Berbatov do its charity actions.
3. Before important task (play) to drop the “curtain”of his energetic shield and to switch the thinking to earth energy stages to aggression and money (the red, orange and yellow chakras).

Then he will soon make more goal that he ever imagine, I said. And that happened.

Berbatov is extremely introvert, gifted with many talents, like all the representatives of the second indigo wave. Apart from its football qualities he has literature gifts, can paint, has a high moral. Several times I have seen him on live and the information that comes through my universal channel is that he is from the second wave. I still have not diagnosed with my apparat Aura camera but I am convinced on 99% that his bio field will shine in indigo violet spectrum. Many people are wondering how Dimitar Berbatov has such good vision to the play, how always succeed to move the ball through impossible angles and situations. And the reason is hidden in his right side of the brain which give birth to very creative results. Through pineal gland (the third eye) the indigo receive a satellite picture of every problem. That is why the decisions of the sport casus that Berbatov is faced are the best. He receive information from other dimensions, from the world of death, from the divine informational field in Cosmos. And there the time, space and physical law do not work.

The warriors of Pluto

There is one sub group of the second indigo wave. It has been dropped to Earth as the harmonizers that came after the people of the primary instinct were not well protected by the first wave – the revolutionists. They also did not resist and started to be depersonalized by the ruling power collective consciousness of the lower vibrations – money, distorted moral and rough materialism. These processes were extremely dangerous for the indigo, with which the Creator made last try for peacefully save the planet. Because the old conscious have destroyed it with every passed day. GMO foods destroy plants and animals. The toxic garbage from the industry and the petrol poisoned the water, the sea creatures and the human.

A little less before the middle of the 80s the high teachers made urgent decision and send to Earth and indigo warriors from Pluto.

That's why many children born between 1983 and 1995 are extremistic oriented. They are under the sign of the ninth planet. The number 9 in numerology symbolized last stage of spiritual development and impertinence of its following. That was the mission.

From astrological point of view in its movement in the astro circle Pluto fly 160 days retrograde and 205 days direct. When this slow planet is direct it brings to the people thoughts for creation, eternity and immortal of the soul. But when it starts to be retrograde it causes transformations, vibrational transmutations, quakes and death. In other words the energy of this planet put the planetarian order under test. Pluto which the high priests of Atlantis moved at the end of the solar system, now creates the conditions of Earth to be reborn the old souls – a warriors from the dimensions. Unfortunately many of them fall in the fight with the old order, with the stuck social models and religious dogmas. These individual could not develop and at the moment they live on the streets, under bridges, in children's houses, in prisons covered with iron and false diagnoses and numerous of pills. For many people the information I have by the spiritual teachers sounds too irrationally, I will mention the syndrome of hyperactivity with deficit of attention (SHDV). The cult for this modern disease come from USA where millions of American children suffer, according to the doctors, from this disease. In it for to be easy are united two diagnoses – Syndrome of hyperactivity and Syndrome of deficit of attention. Lately the two diagnoses are united in one because the “the hyperactivity in early childhood become a deficit of attention in the youth”. These are the symptoms:

- Syndrome of deficit of attention – the child often is not paying attention in the details and makes mistakes because of this in school or other work, very hardly is for it to pay attention during the classes or when playing games, often seems like does not hear when it is talked to it, not follow the instructions and can not end its school classes, often is hard for it to organize tasks and activities, often forget and loses things.
- Syndrome of hyperactivity – child often shake hands and feet or move on the chair, often stand up from its place in class, where it is supposed to sit, often run or climb in situations where it is not appropriate, often hurry to answer before the question is raised, it is difficult for it to wait its turn, often speaks a lot.

Syndrome of hyperactivity with deficit of attention is turned into universal disease because in it also go problems with hearing and seeing, anemy, allergies, food problems, thyroid problems, autism, anxious or tics. In youth they transformed into depressions, manias, alcohol, narcotics.

What shows all that – impotence of the official medicine to put up with all these diseases, and that's why they put all under the abbreviation SHDV. There's no cure for that, and it is not found what causes it or the way to heal.

One of the last researches beyond the Ocean shows that this diagnose is put wrong to thousands of children. More active kids are confined as hyperactive and suffering from a deficit of attention only because the teacher said so. This is a whole craziness. That why they've been given psychostimulants like metilfenidat, that destroy the psychic of the indigo children. That's how the keepers of the fifth race in the USA for a year give 2-3 milliards of dollars to deactivate and destroy the sixth race with chemical weapons – pills. And the root of their weird soul-emotional condition is hidden in the quality of their new divine matrix. It threatens these circles of the society that has no interes from the plutonian change. Who are they – bankers, corporate predators, unmoral politicians. Most of them think and act syndically, but in fact they are obsessed by the reptiles that control the human consciousness.

Be careful Reptiles!

Lizardmade are described in the Bible under the name Satan and the devil. From thousands of years there are dates that we are dividing the Earth with lizardformed. In the folklore of all the nations there are dragons and enormous snakes that kidnaped the most beautiful girls and boys to make sex with them. This is not only a myth. The reptiles are digged in the Hell of our reality in underground towns. When necessary they go in other dimensions when they can exists. On later stage they found way to implement their DNA with the human and started to make sex with earth humans that are kidnapped by UFO. They create secret society from powerful beings with human image that in the moment order the destiny of the whole human kind. Apart from the new technologies the biggest advantage they have is the key to the noosphere – the collective consciousness, the net of the Earth. With its help they zombiing the thought and will of every human. In the 1913 year in the USA the reptiles takes control over the money and that dictates the order on the Earth economically and psychically. According to the revelations that I have from my spiritual teachers, the reptiles are the authors of many diseases, also the syndrome of hyperactivity. The first reason is that lizard like creatures are feed with negative psychical energy of the people, and the “delicious” is the fear. The other reason is that the diseases made people bad, and the humanity can not deeply see the needs of the new generation. Otherwise thy wil think about whether so many children suffer and are born different, this is not part of the God’s will and evolution.

It is not a secret that the AID is a laboratory virus. If we turn back it begins from the coming, since the first wave indigo came. If the coincidence is happen to stuck the consciousness with new fear bomb throwing to people..

In China, Africa and USA many children from the second wave happen to be resistant to this disease. In the USA the people who suffer from AIDs are decreasing with 40% thanks of the indigo children. And if this is not a clear sign that on every bad action on Earth there is accurate good anti-action from the universe. Because no one can walk against the high universal will. "If needed the Earth will be destroyed and a new one will be created but the will of the Creator will be", said a revelation that I captured.

Because of their spiritual power the children indigo are resistant to the deadly diseases with which the evil powers want to stop their coming. As much as the spiritual fire is, that the energy of the blood I biggest and diseases, formed in the lower astral can not live in it.

In 1994 year is born the next phenomenon child. Its parents are HIV positive. The child is born with the virus. The next analyses after 6 months show infection in the blood. But when the child reached 7 years the doctors found nothing in its blood. The scientists wanted to analyze the phenomenon independently one from another. They poised cells taken from the child that is HIV positive. It seems that they did not change. DNA analyze show that this code is not from a human. The cells contain more genetic information that is not shown in other people. This case is not isolated, hundreds of kids and young people all over the world have these qualities.

The representatives of the new sixth race differ with their genetic code. They have 44 from all 64 sleeping cells in reserve. If they awaken the human is given with new qualities.

Mainly the second indigo wave receive the blows from the fifth race, to the materialism and Mammon of money, with the active role of the reptiles. Indigo wanted its right to live how the canons of the universe want. Despite of the human loses they partly ended their mission – to clear the way for the teachers and angel creatures from the light which are landing to Earth after them. Even with many sacrifices first and second wave make the people to look upon the world on other way.

Some of them despite the situation has climbed up in the hierarchy are already making the plan to break the old lizard order. At the same time more often military and police enter in fight with groups of young people in the suburbs of France, USA, Greece and Bulgaria. The change is inevitable.

A third wave come from the stars

The third wave started to come in the 1990 year up to the beginning of the new millennium. My last analyzes shows that these are mainly individual which auras shine in lavender. Born in 1998-1999 cares crystal consciousness. They are intuitive, talk between each other by telepathic way but the most interesting is that with them it is not need a regression therapy any more, to remember that they live on the other planets as well. These are the represents of the sixth race which make the rebellion for change. The third incarnated wave will make a way to cosmic transition because it is extremely powerful in energetic. Its representatives already raise voice in the schools, mass they do not want to learn the earth sciences. "Give us a map to your universe" are saying they.

After my participation in a tv show I October 2010 with me there are connected parents that have pleased me for help and advices. They told me they could not find common language with their children. It brings to their attention that the kids are using sentences that has heard from my mouth on the tv show.

Their children are going in one class in a school in Silistra and are saying that they have meet each other in another Universe, most likely parallel to ours. Our real parents are cosmic creatures. You are nothing to us, are saying the children to their parents.

The same case and again in Silistra I have before years. They called me urgently to break a black magic spells in one family. Many troubles have been came across in 12-13 months and at the end a deadly accident has happen. Along with that strange things happen at night. Shaking doors, and glasses without any reason. The diseases, financial troubles and the death come from a family curse. But all this paranormal situations I did not see to be made by a negative energy. The people a willing for help at one day late

I came. I rang the bell and a 5 year old girl opened the door. “My parents will go back from work in a moment.” she said and catch my hand entering into the living room for not to hear the grandmother which was also at home. Then she looked me in the eyes and said “Can I dance with you? This is my favorite song.” I of course admit. Between us came the following conversation as I remember.

- I know why you are here

- Why, I asked as I did not the case in details.

- Oh you will find out I know. But remember, do not talk to my parents what is happening, instructed the indigo child and show me two fingers.

- After two months I should tell them?

- No, the other – two years. We are many and then we will show up.

Then we sit on the coach. I wanted to provoke her and check. I explained to her that I am from Sirius because from there are my sky teachers. In moment of deep meditation a receive mental informational channel for this part of the galaxy and sometimes I travel to there. The kid said “No, you are from there”and showed me a planet near. Then she said to me that she is from Orion.

It left two year from then in 2011. Incidentally or not after my tv interview parents from same Danube town informed me that the things that the gir told me already happen. Children without to be scared already talked for their star origins.

I adviced the parents to learn the code with which they an communicate with indigo children as equal. But they need to know something – the tales are not fantastic.

The fourth indigo wave came in the period of 2007 and will continue to come with even bigger intensity after 2012. The children that are born cares angel souls. Scanned with Aura camera, their bodies are covered with divine white light. Entering for the first time in the astral body of such kids I did not find any information for incarnations. This is a clear new matrix from the God, the children from the Era of the spirit for which is talked in many prophecies.

Subconscious mental switching off

My work with representatives of different generations clearly showed that there are invisible transformations in human and in the fine worlds around us. No one can not explain why indigo children suffer from the modern disease deficit of attention or hyperactivity. The answer of that enigma is hidden in one phenomenon that I found. I called it “subconscious mental switching off” (NMI). In fact it is how it is showed from earth point of view. But it is prefocusing, switching on the conscious from the earth planet channel to the universal, which can be understand as other dimension. The reason I can not say. May be this happen because of the many troubles that we hit and choose to reach there. They bring the indigo in other dimensions because they do not find understanding there. Logically. Or it is been coded like this the representatives of sixth race to go parallel to ours and other worlds. And may be the truth is somewhere in the middle.

After NMI started the indigo people can not focus their attention. Parents and teachers are in panic, that they speak and on the other side there is no one. Actually the representatives of the sixth race are going to another place – where they belong. When such child switch the signal you tape it, it tells you the whole history of the Universe without looking at telescope Habal.

My researches of the different indigo waves give the following results that I hope to be taken under attention from the so called official medicine and pediatriy.

- The brain of the first indigo wave switches between hour and a half.

- The brain of the second indigo wave has period of NMI on every 30 minutes.

- The third wave switches from the earth to the universal channel on every 15 minutes. They take many impacts that they can not talk and think logically.

- The fourth wave switch on every 5 minutes. This big reverse hinders them to talk. They started to talk lately. Because their physical age of 5-6 years is equal to 24-36 earth months. This is the real time that they have been on Earth.

- The fifth wave that come after 2010 are switched on directly in the Universe. In many cases the parents on the pure “five” could not talk at all.

These are the star people. That is how I called them because they came from above and feel very big impact from the Cosmos. Children that are diagnosed from doctors as autists, are simply representatives of the high sensitive zodiacs – pisces, cancer, scor-pion. Hyperactive children are usually aries or Taurus coming from Mars. Some of them remember their incarnations in the Solar system others came from Orion, Sirius, Pleides, Andromeda, Arktur, Universes, Galaxies. They use different names of planet systems that astromons did not hear yet, and when I show them the star atlas that I keep I my office, they intuitive are oriented as they whole life are working for NASA. Souls are really travel big distances to reach the Earth and to help Bulgaria and the world to the forthcoming changes.

While they just dream, their consciousness work, energetic bodies also work and keep themselves, their home and country – this is our common home.

The big secret of the high chakras

Many people think that human body is built by seven chakras. But there are more 5, that are our connection to the dimensions, Cosmos, the Galaxy and the Universe. Now I will reveal the high chakras for the first time.

The eighth chakra is 30cm upon our head. The ninth is 1,5 metres above. The tenth is placed in the atmosphere. The eleventh is reaching the constellations. The twelve energetic center I found in the Universe and the thirteenth chakra is the personal nebula in the space. This is our personal Universe where we create after a long period of evolution of our aura and soul.

Very person I can find here is he in the Galaxy and above and to heal him. With the time I developed method for healing which is many times better than the healing on earth level.

On a cosmic level it is revealed the spiritual abilities of the human. That is the work with the spirit and the soul, which subordinate the body. The connection is always from above to lower, and not the opposite. Apart from the energy corrections that I make to the body I raise up on level Galaxy and search who are you as a star spirit. Our spirit is projected on the Earth as soul. Half of it is in the blood, other part is hidden in the nerve system. That's why all diseases come from nerves.

From five years there is possibility for star healing but the evil powers keeping the old order do not give access to it. But the keepers of the universal harmony give the right of the earth people the possibility to change the body matrix to their star one, and to have much more senses.

Interesting energy allows when I open the hand the air started to shake. With it I can pull out every organ from the human body and to replace it with its cosmic equivalent. To one girl Maria I took the heart and replace it with cosmic. On earth level she was very hurt and has stopped to feel love to the people around. Two year after she came alone in Sofia and wanted to bring her back her earth heart. I can not love human like before, physically. Now I feel love only to nature, Earth and Universe but it is too high for me, said Maria.

But apart for soul problems the method is effective in physiological deviations. If the human has a healthy problem with particular organ after it is replaced from above on physical level it is became healing. This is an invisible transplantation.

The high energetic allow us to do many things that we now can see for the first time. That is for example many people when they read books they do not suspect that they start dangerous travel outside the body far away in the worlds. When crossing over the cosmic barriers there is danger to capture alien virus. It goes to our high chakras and through the seventh enter in our body. Very often in my office come people with larvas. They are visualised like bulges parasiting on the head of the aura around the seventh chakra.

Still the human can not travel very far away outside its body with thought-form, because of the bond that is always connects it to the physical projection – body.

8th and 9th chakras are our ticket for the solar system. With it it is very easy to travel and find out where it is the star spirit which has made and subordinate the soul. On Pluto for example are trained very powerful warriors, part of them are sent to the Earth.

Big percentage of the sensitive people are connected to Pleiades. From Sirius are transcendental spirits, that see parallel worlds, talk about energy fights, spirits and aliens. But they are a few. I belong to them. From Orion came many powerful mediators, hermits that put in society are called aggressors. They can be seen that they look the world under eyebrows with the white in the eye. This is because most of them are coming from Orion Beta or the brightest star Rigel. It radiates 66 000 times brighter than our sun. for that reason the light here is weak to them. They made themselves to look subconsciously and we think that they look bad at us. This is what we thought as we do not meet the solar creatures. They are much more with bad sight than the orions. They are rarely coming to Earth and more often to bring death and hurricanes.

From Andromeda are the people of live – funny people. They come on Earth for regeneration after a long work for the escadriles. People in which are incarnated star souls have galactic maps in the head that they will activate when needed. With one look on the sky in clear night they can find out what happens on Venus for example, where during dream the people are taught to love. Without suspecting planets give to humanity many different knowledge. Accros Neptune it is taught the highest love- compassion. On Jupiter it is taught how to be a spiritual leader. On Mercury we teach how to read from the Universe through talk and lighting informational algorithms. On Saturn there are the spiritual rules. On it, it is base our being and we should not go upon it. On Uranus I have seen to make chemical weapons for destroying the reptiles. On that planet there are the super technologies. If something come to our Galaxy it is from the laboratories of this blue-green planet. Their super weapons work great during the Great fight with the reptiles in 2004 earth time.

Not wanted on the Polar star

I am not claiming that I have all cosmic codes for every portal of the constellations of the Multiuniverse. For example it is forbidden for me to go on the Polar star. I tried once but I have been stopped and escorted back by cosmic guides – two circles of mind. It was not explained why, it is forbidden and that is all.

One star also like the human have layers of fine bodies. She has physical and etheric body but there is also higher spheres. They are important for us as we can connect with them and take powers. In the moment it is important for the humanity as upon it the people has oriented for the north direction. The spiritual light of the Polar star give goodness and regenerates the cells. That how it would be more that thousands of years before other star systems take the leading role.

There is a Creator from above, that whatever gifts he gave to us, we are like small children to it. First you learn the lesson and then you can practice it. For that reason there are protected barriers for traveling, knowledge that is shown to everyone according to its mission.

And even though before 4 years I tried for second time to make astral flight to the Polar star, from where are high souls, bringing harmony and love. Through the 13 chakra system I wide my aura and through plasma implosion I dropped my most fine sphere with huge speed. Almost I have reached the goal when one very powerful projector has hit me and blow me to star dust. After that case that is already second breaking the universal laws for controlling access to the interdimensional spaces, I want forbidden to travel a whole year. I was needed 2 months until I restore my powers again. Then they put me a biochip to my DNA for to block me.

Activation of the 12 spiral DNA

The creatures that live on Sirius has serious contribution for the life on Earth, because they created our DNA. After them in our genetic spiral has “touched” other civilizations in one or another direction. Last were the reptiles that has stopped seriously our genetic development. They at the moment keep keyed the 12 spiral DNA matrix which hides paranormal abilities of the human, among which are the clear vision, healing, teleportation and dematerialization. There is one mental setting that help the activation of the human project. It is the following:

I give order to my cosmic spirit to decode my 12 spiral DNA matrix.

This order is said twice with : I order to my star spirit to decode my 12 spiral DNA light.

This is told in mind or with voice three times with whole heart and soul. The place of the awakening is also important. I will tell you that one of the active laboratories on Earth is the temple with 150 suns of Orpheus – Paleokastro. It is near Topolovgrad. The secret was shown to me from one writer and analysator of the thraks Dora Boevska. The talented and enlightened woman in past life was my thrakian mother. She knew so much for bring and the culture of our ancestors but also their psychology.

- Apollo, if would not have been keeping you , now you won”t be among lives, said to me Boevska once.

In dusk of the sun I step on Paleokastro where the ancient has dig the rocks into solar laboratory. The space has opened and from above ea ray has dropped. in 30 minutes very heavy vibrations regenerates my whole bioenergy system. Then I actually received the knowledge for corrections of 8-13 chakra system of the human, that I showed you. After it all ends I was a new person.

But let go back to the activation. After you do the DNA awakening it starts with the time movement of all energetic bodies, activation of the 12 spiral world, opening of the 12 dimensions for us. The logic that one thought has a reason and give consequences of the next will switch off, the parallel, site and subconscious vectors will focus in the right half of the brain in the seventh chakra. Here we can talk about indigovisation that will come as this right site of the brain in indigo is most developed. If the process is successful and the Creator, of course decide to allow to realize the big truth that the humanity still does not suspect. We live here and in other dimensions as well. Every one of us has bodies placed in the space. The science for long time is wondering why we use only 3-5 % of the capacity of our brain. My answer is – because our existence here is one dream. The full being is not on Earth. The biggest part of our beings in different procenteges is placed in other spaces of the galactic interdimensional space.

In activation of the 12 spiral DNA structure to the individual is given multidimensional seeing. The eye like anatomical organ begin to take the light from the subjects not only from this reality. But I warn you, not to be scared. Because from there often enter the supressors of the humanity – the reptiles.

For them not once it is open a word until now, because they are really big danger. In my first travels outside the body I meet lizard creatures , but I did not know its real being. And they were among human biggest enemies. When I cross the halls for teleportation on Mars, I sometimes observe energetic crush between the universal escadriles.

In the moment the lizard creatures posses small space from the great Orion. The galactic council tried to make agreement with them to stay there and to do no more troubles. Because apart from the Earth their nature for vital impulse and experiments with DNA material terrorized not one or two planets with reasonable life. The lizards are very frightened creatures. They look like the dragons described in the mythology. They are 2 meters. Two teeth come from their mouth. Their flake is so thick that can not be pricked. The big tail that they carry they use for attack. With her help like a machine they raise to meters tall. Dispite of the aminal look they have they have developed conscious and can break the will and the thoughts of people. How happened that? They have weird psyhical power, with which they lower the brain waves of their sacrifice and it fall in situation of trans, half dream. They take DNS material from the neck or they kidnapped the creature.

In the energy fights on Sirius B, that I participate, I have seen 20 meters reptiles. I will only mention that it is a trinity star, but the science still do not find the Sirius C.

We push them from the star and pull to the cosmic gate of Orion. A big devastation happen. Never even on movies a human can not imagine this. From the cosmic laboratories of Uranus they bring us blasts. The powerful explosion and the non seen galactic fight damage the whole constellation. In the moment it has been restored and the codes for access are changed.

The weak site of the lizards is their back bone on the thigh. The second are the grills and stinks a lot. When you hit them they fall but do not die. You have to close them in a sphere and to drop a special vibration, that degrades them on a micro elements. One part then takes and spread in the space. After an hour regeneration of the monster without the missing part of the puzel its structure is not stabile and fall into parts.

People that do not have scent of smell during sleep or while they read a book where their energetic bodies are travelling without control in the dimensions often meet the smell of these creatures.

A student sees them

Recently one indigo child that in the moment is studying in New Bulgarian university tells me that in the past has lived a nightmare meeting with a reptile. Because of the high spiritual vibration the representatives of the sixth race can see in certain situations the interdimensional creatures.

“It was not a dream or a vision. It was so real that to touch a glass. Maybe I was 5-6 years when a reptile came in my room. The whole door started to tremble. Some shaking of the space happened. I then did not know what is the creature and how happened to be in my room. There was something in me that attracts them I thought then. Now I realize that they are around us and I only can not see them.

The dragon started to pull me catching my leg. I feel fear because for me this is real. The fear came into fury, anger. I felt the whole light of the world behind me, a sphere and pyramidal structure came in my mind. The creature felt some danger that I can make it on thousands of pieces. Open a gap in the space and came across it. I will never forget the tail that is pulling in from of my eyes – oily, on a green-brown flakes. It disappeared after it shook with the tale. “

The case of the girl was the last tale that only confirmed the existing of the horrible creatures on Earth. They are seen by the indigo children as they have my seeing. I was gifted with it by the spiritual teachers, the indigo are born like that. The eye in their case not only see the projected light, but the fine vibrations that surround us. They go in the brain and is going directly to the third eye – the epiphise. That is why the seeing is not only optical image in the seeing brain centres, but a new process for light feeling that includes vision, smell, taste, pain, touch.

The new seeing decoded our compressed 3D reality into a multiuniversal matrix. This is the so called dimensional seeing. The eye started to capture the projected from the subjects light, not only by straight line but the curve shining as well. They come form the dimensions and carry information about the processes, that happened in the parallel worlds.

A hole in the dimensions

Now there is a break between 7th and 8th dimension from where Aliens, multidimensional creatures in that number the reptiles can easily come to Earth. They have made something like a net that is like a corridor to our reality. It has one function more – with its help the lizards carry closed the development of the human.

For that reason in one of my last missions in defence the territory of Bulgaria I and my group made a break. I want tell their names as it is too dangerous. I went to the highest points in Shar mountain, Olympus and Rila. Only few know that in the ancient these were one big mountain. On a tektonical level they are still connected but we take them as three different massives.

I dropped from the peaks three powerful rays and create and triangle. Then I started to turn with a defined rhythm and angle, while I make a hole in the net which the reptiles are made upon Earth. That is how we break the net over Bulgaria. According to whole planet, looked from the cosmos, the break was partly. In the next days with my group connected energetic of the country with Sirius and Orion. The good energy informational channel between Earth and these constellations is obligate, if we want to have cosmic guaranty that nothing can stop our evolution. With the opening we create conditions for those who want to unblock their DNA from two spiral to again in 12 spiral to make this maximum fast. The electromagnetic transformation of the DNA should help our bodies to absorb successfully the synchronized ray that will hit the planet in 2012.

Fights during sleep

Not controlled 13 chakra system along with the shining of the 12 spiral DNA in different individuals can cause sometimes events that can not be expressed. To any of us is happened for example to be tires, not sleep although it has sleep a lot. And we are wondering why and even do not suspect that at nights we go to school to other planets from the solar system, and others take part in fights.

The people practicing meditation sometimes they go into big troubles in going in trans between the sleep and the awakening. I also during meditation switch off the earth consciousness and direct it to the vacuum, to the nothing. When the fifth scents are blocked the brain sometimes goes into gama level.

In that condition unprepared human is very vulnerable. It is like entering in computer game without shields, blood, animals and weapons – whole craziness. And here the damages are real.

In October 2010 I accidently saw our futurology writer Lubomir Staridolski. He was gone to a meeting with the society of the Sirius – secret society of metaphysists, for which is talked for years, but no one has got nothing to it. He received an information for a cure from the angel beings that lived on Sirius D, that can heal everything. They produce a little doze from the food and it seems that regenerates eyes, hearts, organs for transplantation – kidneys, liver, autoimmune diseases. Hit by insult and heart attack people has been healed thanks for the formula, and people with bone pains were starting walking.

We sit to drink 50 grams of whiskey and he told me that he has pain in his neck. Staridolski has found a cure for the whole humanity but he could not help himself. He tried all alternative methods of the conventional science – herb therapy, reiki but nothing helps. The pain as he described started over night – in 20 o'clock and in 23 it calms down, how it is showed. Full mystery! We order a whiskey and we talked about the Russian mags. According to me they are zombiing the Bulgarian people so they bond to the Russian egegor – one invisible informational bank of KGB. To that the minds that are searching reached very fast results in opening the consciousness, raise the vibration and the personal transformations. On their seminars they receive fast results, people explain that they see colours, lazurs and past lifes. The seeing is deceptive because what the Bulgarians receive is part of a program for psyhotrone zombiing. That is an impact over the consciousness as Kashpirovski, a collective hypnose in half sleep condition. Many people has left this world after such seminars of Russian mags, mainly in the 90s they were so many. Every body apart from a finger stamp has also an energetic one. The form, magnetism and the frequency of vibrating of our aura is unique. This is the astral code of the human. With which work the causal machine, responsible for our 3D dimension, called destiny. This super computer is controlling the life of everyone after it put the points of the bioenergetics impulses to the unique IP address – the aura. The Russian machines are smaller and can be put in a suitcase. The apparat is put in the hall during the lectures and the séances to steal the codes from the poor people. After this every human can be killed through impulse independently of what distance is the apparat. Moe often the energetic dates are steal to take the vitality. The case is known as energy vampire but with Russians is technologized in big scale. They use the potential for the invisible wars that are happening on Earth and in the dimensions. During energetic crush the personal energetic of the enlightened people like me can be raised to 100 meters high. We talk about ultra mega powerful crushes. If I now meet some creature coming from Russia to impact us dangerously and have to raise on that height to neutralize it. The military transformation happen with putting all the spheres, that one developed controlling its power warrior has.

Staridolski agreed with me. He also has heard for many cases that particular people have suffered from apparitions and attacks, but still believe in the good beginning in the human. While he drank from his glass I saw thin stream whiskey dropping from the left side of his neck. I defocused my seeing to switch on transcendently and then I saw- an arrow hit right on the place that the writer has complaints by his neck.

- Are you using new method for meditation recently? , I wondered

- Yes, I wrote very ancient text of Sumerian that is talked about special technique. It activates the multidimensional being in a human. I tried according to the ancient instructions, but I do not know whether I have succeeded. Why are you asking?

- Well you managed. Even you participate in fight without knowing, I said.

I stand up and pulled the arrows with very fast movement. After a second he realized that the pain is gone.

The battle field is everywhere around us, and the star wars are not only a movie. They are something else, because they are energetic and spiritual warriors. I am awoken for example very exhausted, I think that we are ill. I analyze many people that have strange conditions. They often think someone has put them on spell, or they have magic or meet energy vampire that suck their powers. And this is sometimes truth but in most of the cases it is wrong. We just live in Multiworld, the borders of which are getting thinner. From the dimensions come energies, low spirits, lizards reptiles, aliens. People feel disbalance, and are wondering from where it is, while they think as a sacrifice will be this way. From this position the Bulgarian people should learn to help lone to themselves. To work with the light. The exercises for stabilization are many. One simple – visualize for example a colorful ray that hit from the Earth through the body to the cosmos. Then we bring it back to the body , and ground to the core of the planet. Everyone can be taught if it wants it from all the heart. This is shown to us by the indigo children which arsenal do not include only thermonuclear reaction – affect on an emotional level. Their structure allows to work with weapons of the Light side. In the arsenal are included colourful rays, spheres, technics with Merkaba and many more. The energetic difence is very important thing. All those arrows, spheres, swords, and rays must be used – the Light side is created for that. Most of the people can see them but they are wondering why they are give and what to do with them. For that reason before yearsmy teachers from above give me the next mission. But not to be a violet general of the indigo army as some journalists called me in the biggest newspaper. This sounds very impressive but it is wrong. Indigo children are not searching for ierarhy, subordination and orders! They do not fit in the old world order of authoritets, and their parents and teachers give up because they don't have an approach. “Find them, help them to realize themselves, show them how to use their endless resource and the indigo alone will find the path”, told me from above. But the universal teachers said something extremely important: “Thanks to the enlightend today in Bulgaria and in the whole world is opened to the fine energies. You broke the net of the reptiles. Then the law what up, the same is down is activated. But you must know that for the other dimensions or in the Universe there are wars and cataklysmus, and with you will happen also tragedies. That is why is important toteach as many indigo people as you can to the future bioenergetics interdimensional crush. This is inevitable future of the planet Earth.”

The horse rider of Vanga

At the end I will show one technik, that is included in the arsenal of the energetic defence and wars. At the beginning of her clairvoyant career of the biggest priest of Bulgaria baba Vanga receive the following vision. In 1941 year came a horse rider with golden armor and told her that she will start to see the axis of the time clearly. "You will be predicting for dead and alive. Don't be scared, I will be next to you and will help you." were the words of the visionary. It predicted to Vanga the second world war.

It came time, it will have war, country against country will stand, it will go through with iron, world will succeed, will loose the war.

"Soon th world will be very confused and many countries will be lost... After a year there will be war. Gather some money and make sacrificial rite in the church "The fifteenth saints"for to be save the town Strumica from devastation."

"This country that will go against the big Russia will lost the war."

And on the next day the germans went against Jugoslavia and Greece. And the participation of Bulgaria in the second world war begin.

It is still full mystery who was the horse rider. According to Vanga he is an archangel, came to tell her about her gift to be a prophet. I found something else. As it was said to me "then the three dimensional human consciousness was not grown for the full multi dimensional truth."So it came the time this to be told. The light horse rider was the king Samuil. He, as many of the Bulgarian kings represents huge archetype energy, dropped on our territory by the Forces. It has been told to me that their envoys are protecting our country, as long as they are pulled out from the dimensions. This is evocation – calling a spirit of a death person. Those cosmic powers are above the level religion, and the knowledge that is given to us through people-visioners like Vanga and me, is impacting the whole humanity.

Vanga could control the power of psychometry. This is a method for analyzing the past of a subject or a human. It includes capturing an information, that is in the auras of stones, trees, or whole fields. There are several people that can use the psychometry, but they are a big helpers in revealing an events from the near and the far past. Taking an information from the past is very little part from the sea of possibilities that we swim without even know. Because apart from information there are also ways to pull from the past huge quantities of energy.

Every human being lived on Earth keeps its powers keyed somewhere in the space time condensator. With certain codes it can be used now. What I did? I took the aurical image of the warriors of all Bulgarian fights- at Aheloi to king Simeon The Great, at Klokotnica to Ivan Asen The Second and then I put to the border to keep it. From Turnovo I awake many shooters. With the members of my group we went to village Kliuch. I evocate the blind samuil's warriors from the dimensions. After I called a cosmic guard raise them to Mars for regeneration and after about a month they came again.

Once I have the knowledge I did not stop here. Several months we enter in Rome. On the Colizeum we open a hole in the space with energy rays. After that we dropped spheres to stabilize the path between the dimensions and pull out from their energy projection of 90 thousand roman army. Big part of it we localize around Plovdiv. In Plovdiv it can be seen the whole energetic of the country, and there it is very powerful but sensitive point. In this town of Bulgaria it is placed the ierihon tube with which we can destroy every enemy. It is everywhere in the Sky on the ground and in the dimensions. To see them is my gift. My channel is switched on 24 hours to the multi Universe. I know in this moment when writing this (22:00, 6 January 2011) that there is no fight and no energy attack against Bulgaria. That doesn't mean there's no risk. At the moment for example the escadres of Orion are waiting from the dimensions to show the giant Nibiru – a planet inhabited with the most dangerous creatures – the beings that are before the reptiles. According to the prophecies they will show In 2012, 2014 or in 2036 but there's a big possibility to surprise us every moment.

The ancient people warn us for the danger in their myths and legends. It is there called the planet X. This cosmic pirate surround the Solar system on particular period of time, and enters in it to destroy the planets that are on its road. Information coded in the myths shows that lastly the planet X has crossed our galaxy crossroad before around 3 600 years. Than it has destroyed a little planet, that there're evidences that has existed between Mars and Jupiter. Analyzing the events from the ancient history shows horrible discoveries. In the ancient Babylonian and shumerian texts is described a flood that came on the drought. There are written the gods born from the Sun, and the describe is fitting with the row of the planets in the Solar system. The expert in ancient languages and cultures Zakaria Sitchin thinks that the role of the great god of the shumerian Marduk is acted from this planet Nibiru. On it live the super developed civilization – the anunaki. It gave to the shumerians calendars, astronomical and mathematical knowledges. After the last Coming of the anunaki through the portals of our Universe they cause a flood. For the motives we can not tell. Many creatures and civilizations want to be the source of birth of the Earth people. Through a system of cycles – knowledge, test and a flood, they modelize our evolution according to their seeing of the existence.

The bloody message of Ariman

In September in 2010 year at the end of working day in my office came a weird woman. She was met by my associate and left her to wait, but didn't tell that there's one more person for the day outside the graphic. I just have finished with the last aurical correction for the day and relaxed on the terrace. For a whole day harmonizing of energy holes from magics and diseases auras I felt exhausted. And while I have looked to the sunrise an invisible hand has catch me to the throat and started to strangle me. It was so scary and not expected that I almost would fall from the fourth floor of the mall in the Student's town. I tightened myself in the third chakra generating a power and with huge impulse I succeed to picked up. I enter in the cabinet running, because I understood that something is wrong. And inside there was a woman that was sitting and looked at me with mild look.

"Mr Kolev – started she- I am searching for you from sometime I hear a voice. At the beginning it talked me softly and I thought that it is an angel. It warn me once when they wanted to fire me because of a mistake of another. Thanks to him I developed a sense to the colour and the composition. Although I have never learn art I painted great pictures. Everything was very good until the beginning of August. Then his voice become metal and aggressive. I threatened me that will take my children if I don't do several things. One of them was to come to you – "Go to reiki master Deian Kolev I want to tell him something and I will leave you...he promised". She told me also that the voice made her do horrible things – "make a bomb and put it in the Central station. I will tell you how to make it and what materials to use." Or "Switch off the ring and don't let anybody for a week – this is a test." The housewife of course didn't do nothing of these things, but because of the harassment she was one step to the clinic. In her desperation she decided to look if I'm a real existing person. With surprise she found my coordinates in internet.

I put her on the Aura Camera and it was visible that her seventh chakra the bound with the spiritual world was moved in right. Around her there can be seen a break, from which is shown the shadow of a horn on top of her head, obviously the horns and the tail of the demon. Her aura was devilish purple colour.

While I described the meaning of the graphics on the monitor, the woman looked weirdly and her voice mutated for seconds and the room has shaken of a male bass tember. The papers of the printer flew, and there were no wind as the door and the windows were closed, and the climatic was switched off.

“the nothing is born from the nothing in the nothing. You are one of the most deserved for my triple magic”. , said the creature, obsessed the woman. It was speaking from her mouth. Obviously the poor woman can not reach such bass depths of the voice.

“Who are you?” I asked. Followed an answer – “associate of Ariman”. You have seen his throne in the mineral kingdom. I have released souls from there and you will be punished. In the year of the dragon the green creatures will attack. We have captured 3 milliards of people. Soon you will be among them.”

The threat affects me , I pulled out the most intensive ray and I cut his legs with ...love. The woman didn't suffer because she was mae by the divine love, and the light hurt only the low creatures. The demon started to pray for a mercy and disappeared. But after all he complete his mission to give me the message from the powers of the dark. In it there's something optimistic. The population of the Earth is 6,7 milliards of people. The people that belong to the Light side are more than the ones obsessed from the Dark with about 700 millions. On them it is kept the balance of our dimension. If the number nears 144 which we should not take literally, as it can mean 144 millions will open a corridor and on our planet will enter horrible creatures from the dimensions. The color of our aura is for now the only thing that shows if we are good, high spirited and if we walk to the right way. Our biggest mistake will be to wait for help from outside. You start to love the people, this love has united – this is the most secure protect. When everyone find itself and the mission on the Earth, the light will come.

CHAPTER 9

Evolution of the Aura

According to the ancient teachers, the individual characteristics of the human aura – its form, size, density, color – depends of the level of our spiritual development of the individual. If a person is developed spiritually and has big energy potential, its aura radiates on a big distance from its physical projection. The wear person inside has a weak radiant.

The form of the aura is harmonic, when the person is psychologically sustainable, and also full with power and energy. As big as its inner unstability is, as bigger level the form of the aura is asymmetrical.

The density of the aura tells for the power of the personality. When a human has a clear mission and is with harmonic behavior, the radiance is bigger and more tightly. To a human with depression or being in emotional shock the density is lower.

One of the biggest prophets of our time – the American Edgar Keysey tells the following:

“From the moment when my memory starts back in the time, I always have seen colors, connected with people. I don’t remember a case when I meet with human beings and my retina is not registering in the air the blue, green or red, streamed all over their heads and shoulders...

It has passed long time before I realize that the other people don’t see those colors. It passed again some time before I hear the word aura and to teach how to use this phenomenon. Which for me was something usual. I never think for the people in other way, only about their connection with the aura. I observe the changes in my friends and relatives it passing of the time – in diseases, depression, love, satisfaction – everything impacts the aura, and for me it is an indicator of the soul. It shows me in what directions are blowing the winds of the destiny.”

Depending of the color and the intensity of the radiant energy give information about the personality, the way of life, about the thoughts in its brain, about the feelings that is his sou, about the harakter, for which image a human can fit in the world. With surprising sharpness the color of the aura reflects our mind, physical and spiritual health.

The father of the Antroposophy Rudolf Shtainer (1861-1925) has noticed the existing of three types of aura depending of the hromatical intensity. The science of Shtainer is precious for the humanity, because it is a try to be analysed and described the spiritual phenomenons with the same punctuality and clearness, with which the nature science described the physical world. Shtainer use science methodology along with a clairvoyance and other methods, stepped on the extra sensual experience. With this complex theoretical and empiric approach is made maximum objective independently if it is observed events from the spiritual or material levels of our being.

Although that today the revolutionary encounter – Aura camera shows the whole aurical palette it Is interesting the conclusions of Rudolf Shtainer. He generally group the aura in three main types, in which context is raised the spirit and the sin.

First aurical type – includes the colours, are little or less not transparent. Although when we compare with the colours, that sees our physical eye, they happen to be mobile and transparent. Filling with clouds like masses the space in the highsensitive world, they thicken it and make it nontransparent. In the first part of the aura can be observed all colours of the instinct life, from the red to blue. These colours are character to something unclear, sees Shtainer. The more red colours shows that there is feelings, carnal passions and greed for gestation. The green colours are filled in these low individuals that are indifferent, greedy giving to every delight, meanwhile they are scared from every effort to achieve it. Where the passions on every prize tried to hit some goal, for which realizing they don't have enough qualities and abilities, in their aura has showed up brown-green and yellow-green colours. Some modern people of life undoubtedly have this type of aura. The personal feeling of the own I, to which the roots are in the lower attractiveness is the lowest level of the ego, it is shown with unclear yellow and green colours. It is clear that the instinctive animal life can take also one happy character. There's one pure sacrifice that we observe even in the animal kingdom. In the natural mother love, the animal instincts reach its real perfection. Those deprived from go animal instincts are shown in the first aura as light red or pink colours. The cowardice fear and the horror in front of physical threat is impacted in the aura like brown-blue or grey colours.

Second aurical type – Encompasses the colours, that has build by light.

They shine in the space that are in. Thanks to them, it transfers into light space. This second aurical type, as the first one is characterized with different colours. Too developed self-sufficiency, the pride and the ambition can be shown as brown and yellow formations. The curiosity is coloured under yellow-red spots. Light yellow colour is bright thinking, good intellect, the green colour is sense for life and world. The bright children has green colours, in this part of the aura. The good memory is represented in the second aura through the yellow-green colours. The pink colour shows that the person is benevolent and loving, the blue colour speaks for the goodliness and piety. As much is the godliness it is near to the piety exaltation, it is more blue that transforms into purple. The idealism and the serious attitude to life look colourful in indigo.

Third aurical type – the colours have shining, glooming harakter. According to Rudolf Shteiner they not only shine in the sace that they take but they spread a rays. In these colours there is something mobile, the others are calm and not shining. Harakter to the chromatical vibration from he third type is that they are formed unstoppably from themselves. Through the first two type the space is filled as like one thin liquid that calmly stays in it. In the third type the space is filed with unstoppably life with eternal mobility.

The attitude between people are exiting and often it creates this powerful energy bond that can have different impact to life of every individual. We can make the conclusion that we live in a world of energies and we the people are energetic beings. And according to the energetic plan we take part in the whole – the good and the bad.

Everyone in the energetic centers have its own colour, but one is mostly spread in the aura. This colour defines the harisma of the human. According to my longtime observation may talk for new aurical frenology, that shows the evolution of the aura. Its colour very sharply reflects to the harakter and gifts of the person. May be iiiiit is not far away the time where the companies will hire people only with a test of their auras. The aurical compatibly can be used in making a marriage. Because if two people are not connected energetically it will soon come the divorce. Here are the harakteristiks of the main tyes of auras. If someone see itself in the types below there is only one way which is 100% sure, to make a test with the detector of the spirituality – Aura Camera.
